ANNOUNCEMENTS.

SENIOR BOYS.

The senior boys cap and gown committee wishes to announce that orders are being taken today for caps and gowns and that no further delay should be made. It further wishes to announce that the petition being circulated by one C. E. Bullard against this progressive movement will have no weight, as the matter has been finally settled by the class. A majority of the boys have already sent in their orders, and it is very probable that there will be but few who will not wear the cap and gown next week.
