T. D. Griffith has had charge of his father's ranch at Superior during the summer.

J. S. Swenson, '01, was married during the summer. He will make his home in Omaha.

Miss Carrie Neilsen '02, was recently elected to the department of Latin and German in the Wahoo high school.

R. A. McNown has returned to the university from Idaho, where he has been working in the lumber woods.

George W. Kline, '00, and Orma Hull, '01, are on their wedding tour. Mr. Kline will return to take up newspaper work in Lincoln.

Harry Swallow, who attended the university for four years, was married to Miss Sichafoose in July. Mr. Swallow is in the employ of the firm of Rudge & Guenzel of this city.

I. P. Hewitt has appeared on the field for football practice. He has been at work on a bridge gang in the Black Hills, together with Ed Rowe, Fred Morrell and George Vasey.

John Koehler '02, of football fame, left yesterday for Chicago, where he will attend the school of theology of the University of Chicago. He will probably seek recreation on the grid-iron for another season.

C. C. North, '02, will leave Saturday for Yale, where he will take up studies in the divinity school and special work in philosophy. He has been engaged during the summer with the charge of a church at Hyannis, Neb.

Orville H. Martin, '96, and graduate from the Harvard law school, is holding a very fine position on a Kansas City law firm of high reputation. He has recently declined the offer of a position on the faculty of the Wisconsin Law school.

Never in our history have we had a finer showing of clothes for young men. Its always been recognized that our tables carry the choice line of things for young men. For years we have had a very large patronage among university men. There is some reason for this condition. Paine's Clothing Store.

Earle E. Farnsworth of this year's senior class, leaves today for Ithaca, N. Y., where he will take his last year work. As a tennis player he will compete for a position on the Cornell tennis teams. He has been spending the greater part of the summer in tennis tournaments in the east and middle west. By this heavy practice his friends feel that he will make a good record for himself in his new field of labor.

The Y. M. C. A. has been distributing for the last two days a very attractive card which is a combination invitation to the annual reception on Saturday evening at the armory and schedule of the football games for the season. The reception will be an informal gathering of all men in the university who care to be present. Some special entertainment will be afforded to those who attend in the way of games, music, refreshments, and an impromptu debate between Professor Caldwell and Coach Booth on the football problem. The association men are trying to spread the news as far as they can.

The Co-op extends a cordial invitation to you to call and examine their large stock of university texts and supplies. Every thing for the students is kept here. Prompt and courteous assistants will do everything in their power to start you out right at the least possible expense and to be of service to you in any way they can. In addition to new books the Co-op has shelf-worn books at special prices and the largest stock of second-hand university books in the city. You should call early for these as the bargains are soon snapped up.

Before getting a pen come in and try the Waterman Ideal Fountain pen. This has stood the test of years of service and you may try pens till you are sure of one that fits your particular use. If not satisfied with the pen you may return it after trial. Pens exchanged also.

The Co-op has pens, platinum prints, card racks, etc., for room decoration. Come in and examine.
