One of the Alumni in business in Lincoln is Charles B. Gregory, '01, who is popularly known as "The Coal Man."

Professor Fossler spent his summer vacation in the Big Horn mountains.
 He reports a good time and is enthusiastic over the climate.

Mrs. Ode Rector chaperoned twenty-five Tri Deltas at a bowling party yesterday morning. Miss Bignell made the highest score, 81. After trying in vain for the prize which is offered at the alley the party visited Rector's pharmacy, where refreshments were served.

An important question for the student is the purchase of a good fountain pen—a pen that will give satisfactory service every hour of the school year.

The Waterman Ideal Fountain Pen is such a pen. Years of service in the University of Nebraska have given it an unassailable reputation. There are other pens, but only one "Ideal." Get that and you will save worry and time.

The new spoon feed does away with leaking pens. We guarantee you satisfaction in pens and in all our supplies. You may return them if not satisfactory in every way.

We also have the Century and Franklin pens—good pens.
