Disappointment for Abbey.

Among those whose work was much disorganized by King Edward's illness is Edwin Abbey, R. A., the American artist selected to paint a picture of the coronation. He had made rough sketches of what he desired to be a historic picture, designed as it is for Buckingham palace, when the king was stricken with illness.

Official Bulletin.

This column is devoted mainly to notices of the university. All departments and student organizations having notices to publish should leave them either at the executive office, at the office of the paper, or hand them to anyone connected with the paper. All announcements should be in by 6 p. m.

Fred West writes to a university friend from an island in the Pacific. Since leaving school last winter Mr. West has been over the greater part of what is known to history as the Oregon country.

For Beast

What's the Use

Of going to a tailor to be measured for clothes and then waiting to try on the garments and have them fitted several times and taking the chance that they'll be right.

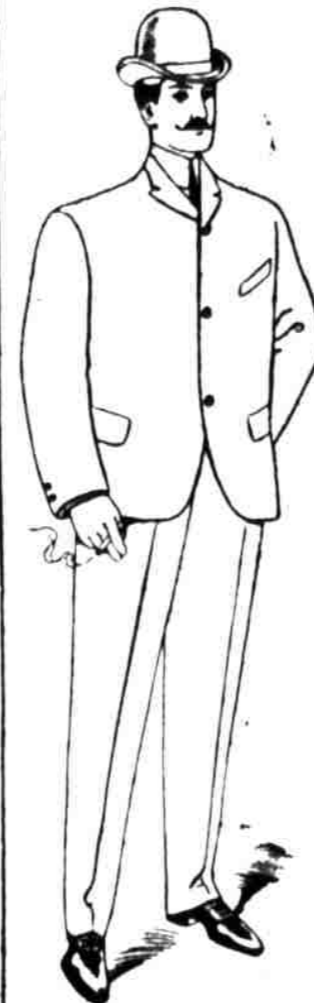

FAR BETTER to come here, where you can be fitted properly in a few minutes and try on as many garments as you will; "that's the only way" to see how the different styles look on you.

BESIDES, there's a great difference in the price, entirely aside from the fact that every other respect we give you the same satisfaction that you get from your tailor's goods.
