E. L. Toble, '02, is teaching science in the Falls City schools.

George T. McGovern, a former student, is deputy clerk of Butler county.

Several new shelves are being constructed in the alcove of the library. They will contain the larger folios.

Hon. C. F. Warner, '99, familiarly known as "Chauncey," has been renominated for state representative by the republicans of Lancaster county.

Professor Fogg has moved from his former location, room N. -304, to a more suitable room, N. 309. It is equipped with new office furnishings.

Two additional arc lamps are soon to be placed in the armory, and two upon the campus. One will be placed near the library and another near Nebraska hall.

A. J. Gibbons, formerly of '02, now of Ann Arbor, is spending a few days at the Delta Upsilon house, before entering upon his senior year in the Ann Arbor school of law.

Hal V. Minor, '95, was a visitor upon the campus yesterday. Mr. Minor is located at Nelson, Neb., where he is engaged in the lumber business. He visited with his brother Ralph, at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house.

Electrician Crane has just completed the reviewing of the class bell system in the basement of University hall and the bells rang for the first time Thursday. A new gong was added to the system and has been placed in the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house.

Miss Addie E. Harris, for some time teacher in the Bennet schools, has returned to the university to take graduate work.

Hepholdt J. Klinge has been visiting friends about the university for a few days. He is on his way to Canada, where he will be employed as chemist in a beet sugar factory.

Miss Sophia D. Kiesselbach, who has been abroad a year, visiting points of interest in Germany and Switzerland, has returned to the university to take up college work again.

A cadet suit is quite dressy. The Paine clothing store has been making good ones for many years. Uni boys have used a good many of them in past years.

The geology department has secured new lanterns for demonstration and lectures. These will be put immediately to use in course I. They are a considerable improvement over the old ones.

G. F. Miles, '03, has been appointed assistant in the department of botany. For the past two or three years Mr. Miles has devoted the greater part of his attention to the study of botany, in which he is specializing.

G. W. Dudley, '02, who has been in the employ of the Northwestern Railway company during the summer, was in the city Saturday, to see the football game. Mr. Dudley is now principal of the Dewitt schools.

The new course in general geology, designed especially for teachers in the secondary schools, is very popular. About twenty teachers attended the lecture Saturday, and quite a number of others have signified their intention of taking the course.

W. H. Heaton, a former mechanical student of the university, is at present employed in a foundry at Des Moines, Ia., as superintendent of the casting department. He was formerly employed by the Vierling and Paxton company of Omaha.

Mr. Robert S. Hiltner of the chemistry department has returned from California, where he has been engaged during the past summer in studying the practical side of sugar making. The classes in sugar chemistry will profit considerably by his experience. While in the west Mr. Hiltner was offered a very tempting position as chemist in a large sugar factory. However, he preferred to remain in Nebraska.

The Mercantile Insurance company of this city has over seven thousand policy holders and $6,000,000 insurance in force. It has now been organized nearly six years and is patronized by the best people of the state.

Any of the students having property they want insured for a short time, can secure a policy for that purpose with the Mercantile, 130 North 13th St.—A strong company with a good record.
