

TALK WITH LUDWIG

ABOUT YOUR CLOTHES

We make the best fall-dress suits in town, $30.00 up—we have everything you want at the price you want it,

1036 O Street.

Ganoung Pharmacy Co.

1400 O Street, Lincoln, Neb.

HOT SODA IN SEASON. OPEN ALL NIGHT.

If You're a Kicker

Get a Lincoln Hardware Co.

FOOT BALL

And kick it to your heart's content.

Lincoln Hardware Co.

1312--1314 O Street.

THE FAMOUS CADET UNIFORM—Made by The Henderson-Ames Co., Kalamazoo, Michigan, can be secured of

JAMES HEARN,
237 South 11th Street.

See cloth samples and let him take your measure.

Yule Bros. Laundry

1514 O Street. Tel. 754.

Originators of the idea of sending home work satisfactory

DR. J. R. HAGGARD.—Physician and Surgeon. Special attention paid to diseases of females and rectal diseases. Rooms 212 to 214 Richards block. Residence 1310 G street. Office telephone 535. Residence telephone L 984.

THE... NORTHWESTERN ...LINE

F., E. & M. V. RY.

BEST LINE TO

ST. PAUL
BLACK HILLS
CHICAGO

1024 O St. 1024 O St.
E. R. BUTLER, ROY MCGINNIS,
C. T. H. Gen'l Agt.

Pioneer Barber Shop

Clean Linen, Finest of Toilets, First-Class Service.

A. L. KEMNERRER, Proprietor.
113 So. 11th St., Lincoln, Neb.

The Best Shoes on Earth for the Price

OUR $3.00 and $3.50 SPECIALS

OUR $3.00 and $3.50 SPECIALS

Local and Personal

Gregory, the Coal Man.
Eat at Don Cameron's, 118 So. 11th.
Cameron's lunch counter, 118 So. 11th.
The Palace barber shop, 109 No. 11th St.
Dr. Baker's office, over Miller and Paine's.
Buy your Gloves at the Famous.
Buy your Corsets at the Famous.
Buy your Millinery at the Famous.
Gloves Cleaned at the Famous.
Forty men are out for football practice daily.
C. Yoder has added a collection of Pink Celestite to the state museum.

R. S. Baker, '97, is superintendent of the schools at Wood River.
Miss Mildred Clarke is back at school again after a long illness.
Miss Madge Ames, '02, is teaching in the scientific department of the Albion high school.

V. Peterson of Emerson, after a two years' absence, has returned to graduate with '03.
Prof. O. V. P. Stout is back at his post again after his summer's work in the west.

Miss Helen Fields of Shenandoah, Ia., is in the city to attend the Whiting-Westerman wedding tonight.
Rev. Benj. J. Filtz, of St. Luke's Episcopal church, entertained the student members of his congregation at his apartments, 1218 T street.

A. L. Gaines, who has resigned from the weather bureau, will leave tomorrow for his home in Elk City.

A manual of wood turning of Prof. R. C. Richards is in use this year in classes in mechanical engineering 1.

John Spittler, law '02, has been nominated by the democrats of Holt county as a candidate for representative to the next state legislature.

W. H. Warner, '01, retains his position as analyst for the Republic Steel Works, Youngstown, O., instead of returning this year for graduate work in geology as he intended.

Mary Brayton, '02, is teaching in the Stanton schools.

Evan Sage, '02, is employed as assistant ticket agent at Beatrice, Neb.

Miss Ethel Masters, '02, is teaching in the Edgar high school this year.

Fifteen law students have signified their intention of entering the preliminary debates this year.

Miss Howell, teacher in the elocution department spent her summer vacation at Hot Springs, Ark.

The advanced classes in elocution are about to take up Hamlet. This is a new departure.

Miss Mary Meeker, '03, has charge of the girls' gymnasium class at Wesleyan. She expects good success.

Laboratory work in mechanical drawing designs has been delayed on account of a lack of drawing tables.

The railroad officials yesterday gave notice that the matter of rates for the Boulder game is yet unsettled.

W. S. Heitzman, '99, who represents the Maynard, Merrill & Co., publishers, of New York, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Leon Pepperberg returned with about forty excellent specimens of the genus Campophyllum, which he has donated to the state museum.

F. E. Osborn, '00, has returned to Omaha to enter upon his senior work in the College of Medicine. He is connected with the "Pulse," the publication of the medical department.

The music's going gally,
And the oysters are in prime;
Come down and hear "Bill Bailey,"
and "The Good Old Summer Time."
Powell's Oliver Theatre Cigar Store.

One of the leading original contributions to the Journal of the American Medical association this week was written by Dr. A. C. Stokes of the faculty of the College of Medicine of the university.

Philip F. Bross arrived in the city yesterday to resume his studies at the university. He will also assist in the department of philosophy. For the last few months Mr. Bross has been at McCook, where he was in the employ of the Burlington.

The gardener is preparing for cold weather by removing the flowers and plants on the campus to the green house.

J. L. Hirsby, '05, of the mechanical engineering department, was employed in the B. & M. survey gang during the summer.

Mrs. J. H. Spencer of the Ladies' Faculty club, left last Tuesday for a two months' visit in Washington and Philadelphia.

The southeast corner in the attic of the Mechanic Arts building is being fitted up for a taxidermy room for Professor Bruner.

Grace G. Rowe, a former student and sister of Edward Rowe, medic, was married Monday to Oscar Chygens, a merchant of Surprise.

Mrs. G. A. Loveland has returned from a months' visit in Vermont. Mrs. Loveland's mother came with her to spend the winter in Lincoln.

The chorus classes under Mrs. Raymond are yet left open to those who want to register for those courses, without paying the extra $3.

The beginning class in elocution is larger by about twenty-five than last year. Some very promising students have registered for this course.

John Holmes, '05, of the civil engineering department, was employed as axe-man in the Union Pacific survey gang in Wyoming last summer.

The training table is an established fact now at 621 North Sixteenth street. Six men take their meals there, and the number is expected to reach fifteen.

Miss Rose Olson, piano instructor at the Conservatory, was forced to give up her work last week on account of ill health. She is now taking treatment at St. Elizabeth's hospital.

Howard Hubbell, secretary of the university Y. M. C. A. last year, is in the city today. He leaves tonight for Chicago, where he will enter the Chicago Central Y. M. C. A. training school.

The band met last evening for the first time and it promises to be the best in the history of the university. There were more members than places. A concert will be given in the chapel in the near future.

There are about ten students in the advanced French and linguistic science classes who in a short time will be capable of taking positions in high schools throughout the state, doing the university as well as themselves much honor.

There have been a number of changes in the department of mathematics along the line of courses. Miss Puffer has been assigned to take the class in geometry of position. Adjunct Professor Moritz is to take course 15 in the afternoon and Professor Davis courses 20 and 21.

THE LINCOLN BOOK STORE

1126 O STREET.

HAVE IN STOCK SOME COPIES:

Hastings' & Beach's Physics, Beaman & Smith's Algebra, Remsen's Chemistry, Allen & Greenough's Latin Grammar, And several other Text Books, which will be sold this week at reduced prices.

We promptly obtain U. S. and Foreign

PATENTS

Send model, sketch or photo of invention for free report on patentability. For free book, How to Secure Patents and TRADE-MARKS write to

CASNOW & Co.

Opposite U. S. Patent Office WASHINGTON D. C.