CHARLES E. BESSEY, Dean.The exchanges of the Nebraskan are left in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, where all who are interested in college news throughout the United States can find them.Mr. Sheldon, chairman of the program committee for the Historical Society, which holds its annual meeting next January, is busily engaged in arranging the program for the session.
Last year the general topic was about "Early Railroads in Nebraska." This year the papers will relate for the most part to the "Old Steamboat Traffic on the Mississippi." Correspondence with several old twin-river captains is being carried on, and it is likely that the committee will be able to induce some of them to come and relate some of their old experiences.A new book bearing the title of "A First Book of Forestry," has been sent to Professor Bessey for review. It is by one of the professors of forestry in Cornell University, Professor Filibert Roth, a gentleman who has had much experience in government work.Sold only By PERKINS & SHELDON,
