Superintendent Fowler has received an invitation from the board of education at Philadelphia to be present on November 22d at the dedication of the new central high school which has recently been completed. The program for the dedicational ceremonies indicates that President Roosevelt will deliver an address at the opening session. A memorial window presented by the family of Edward T. Stell, who was for many years president of the board of education will be formally accepted.

N. A. Wilson, cashier of the Farmers' and Merchants' bank, of Stromsburg, attended the Knox-Nebraska game Saturday. Mr. Wilson is a football enthusiast. He is manager of the Stromsburg eleven, and is justly proud of its record. They have played York College, Hastings College, David City and several other teams, and have won every game easily without having a point scored against them this season. They will play the Genoa Indians on Thanksgiving. Mr. Wilson looks for a fierce game, but says his boys will win.

Professor Bruner leaves today for St. Louis, Mo., where he will lecture before the National Apple Growers' convention. During his absence Mr. A. Carriker, his assistant, will have charge of the department.
