Official Bulletin.

This column is devoted mainly to notices of the university. All departments and student organizations having notices to publish should leave them either at the executive office, at the office of the paper, or hand them to anyone connected with the paper. All announcements should be in by 6 p. m.

REGISTRAR'S CALLS.

Notice is hereby given that any student not answering promptly the official calls to this office becomes liable to dishonorable dismissal from the university.

THE REGISTRAR.

NOTICE.

All students who have not given their address or who have changed their address, should report immediately at the registrar's office.

THE REGISTRAR.

LUNCHEON SERVED.

Luncheon served every day except Saturday in Mechanical Arts hall by domestic science department, beginning at 11:30 a. m. Service a la carte.

NOTICE TO SENIORS.

Some Seniors in the Industrial college have not seen me in regard to their standings. Please do so soon, bringing your credit books. My office hours are from 11:30 a. m., to 12 m., each week day, in the dean's office.

CHARLES E. BESSEY, Dean.

NEW THEME NOTICES.

New notices respecting Junior and Senior themes are pasted on U. 306, and M. 206.

The registrar's office is publishing a bulletin for the winter course in agriculture. This course begins January 1st.

Zoology 1 will have a lecture at 9 a. m. Wednesday instead of the usual period Friday, when Dr. Ward will be out of the city.

All Juniors and Sophomores should be out today at the class championship game. The players will appreciate their presence.

Captain Chase will inspect the Pershing Rifles next Thursday night. All old men who expect to drill with the company this year are requested to be present in full uniform.

The Mabelle Crawford company is one of the greatest musical combinations before the public. Miss Crawford is the leading contralto of the country, today, and she has an excellent company. This company will appear at the First Baptist church next Friday evening.

Mabelle Crawford will be remembered in Lincoln as the artist who sang with the Thomas orchestra at Omaha during the exposition.

The new gymnasium suits are now on hand at Mayor Bros. Students will secure them at once, and the gymnasium classes will appear in uniform soon. The suits are composed of a blue Jersey, blue turned pants and tennis shoes. Uniforms will add greatly to the appearance of the classes, and better work can be done by the men with less danger of accidents.

All those who are taking gymnasium work have not yet ordered their suits. This matter should be attended to at once without further delay, as no man will be allowed on the floor unless he is in uniform.
