"So-Called Trusts"

FRIDAY, DEC. 12, 8 P. M.

University Hall - Free

She

"Chick" Shedd is rapidly improving. The operation was a difficult one and under the circumstances the patient is doing very nicely. He was feeling better yesterday afternoon than at any time since the operation was performed and the physicians are very hopeful.

Senior Girls Chose Gowns

The Senior girls met in U. 210 yesterday and decided on the caps and gowns to be worn by them. The cap and gown of last year was adopted. All orders must be in by the end of next week. The grade of the material of the gown is optional. The girls expect to appear in their class attire for the first time on the Friday before Charter day. It is urged that the orders be sent in without delay. The members of the committee in charge are: Misses Brown, Walling, and Woodford.

Junior Girls' Team

The Juniors, who very nearly won the pennant last year, enter the tournament next Friday with a stronger team than ever, and are conceded by the other three classes to be dangerous rivals. All the members of this team learned the game in the University of Nebraska, and all have had at least a season of experience. Two of the players, Miss Scott, captain and guard, and Miss Craig, forward, were elected this fall to the varsity team. The others on the team are Miss Emma Shinbur, forward; Miss Nella Schlesinger and Miss Harriett Mitchell, centers; Miss Margaret McCutcheon, guard. Miss Mitchell makes her debut Friday night as the successor of Miss Amy Conger, who is not now in school. Miss Mary Meeker is the Junior substitute.

The class has reserved a section of seats, for the team supporters, and has appointed a leader to direct the enthusiasm. The Junior girls are to have the sympathy and support of their classmates, either in victory or defeat.

Delta Upsilon Banquet

The fifth annual banquet of Delta Upsilon was held at the chapter house Tuesday evening, immediately preceded by initiation. Covers were laid for forty. A number of out of town men were present. The toasts were as follows:

"Chapter Policy," H. D. Rowlands, Colgate, '72.

"The Scarlet and Cream," Fred M. Lipp, Nebraska, '03.

"Our Chapter House of the Future," Raymond C. Pollard, Nebraska, '04.

"The Marietta Convention," J. Kanzler, Nebraska, '04.

"The Ideal Pledge," John E. Tuttle, Amherst, '79.

"What a Freshman Must Learn," John R. Forsyth, Nebraska, '05.

P. H. Thompson, Nebraska, '99, occupied the toastmaster's chair.

The names of candidates for the positions of football manager and assistant football manager must be in the hands of the athletic board by December 15.

Harry Langley preaches every Sunday in Pickerel, Gage county.

Novelties in Men's Furnishings

It's an easy matter to find just the Tie, Muffler, or any item of Furnishings you want when you go where the correct new styles are shown. Our display of the nobby, artistic designs for the holidays seem to attract the tasty dressers. A few moments' look through our furnishing department we believe would be time well spent . . .
