DR. FLING'S TRIP—From Page 1.

graduate of the University of Nebraska, and formerly in the library here, and engaged in the same work at Berkeley, who did the honors of the institution.

Dr. Fling spent Sunday at Palo Alto, the guest of Professor Snedden, of Leland Stanford University. He met a number of history men and spent half an hour with President Jordan, of the university. He left Palo Alto Monday morning and after spending a few hours in San Jose he took the coast route for Los Angeles. While there he met Miss Jones, formerly a librarian at the university of Nebraska, who planned some delightful trips. They made a tour of the city, visiting the Redlands, Riverside and other places of interest. He spent last Thursday at the home of Miss Jones in Pasadena, and had the pleasure of picking oranges from their trees. He left Thursday night for Nebraska via the Santa Fe.

The Ladies' Faculty club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. G. A. Loveland and Mrs. Roscoe Pound at Mrs. Loveland's home. The ladies busied themselves with their fancy-work and enjoyed a pleasant, social time. During the afternoon Miss Edith Shedd assisted the hostesses in serving dainty refreshments.

The lecture by Judge Peter Grosscup of Chicago in the old chapel at the university this evening promises to be attended not only by the legal fraternity of the city, but by members of all the professions and by business men. The subject will be "Trusts, the Next Step in American Politics." The lecture is given under the auspices of the College of Law. It is free and the public is invited. Judge Grosscup will be entertained by members of the bar association.

Mr. Ralph Pryor, Junior law, was bequeathed a $9,000 farm for his twenty-first birthday.

Miss Bertha Carney, who quit school last year on account of her health, is spending the winter in Pennsylvania.

The Palladian club has arranged a debate with Doane college, which will be held immediately after the holidays.

Miss Ida Taylor, '01, of Exeter, is the guest of Elva Sly. She came to witness the basket-ball tournament on Friday evening.

Miss Conklin will give a course of beginning French next semester if twenty students will register for it. She hopes to continue the course by giving French II in the first semester next year.

The American history department has added two new books to its shelves bearing on the life of Abraham Lincoln. Two of them are biographies, and the other is made up of articles by different people who were intimately acquainted with Lincoln.
