Convocation Announcements.

The following is the convocation program for the rest of the week:

Wednesday—Dr. White, "A Layman's Observation on the Social Conditions in Europe."

Thursday—Prof. Caldwell, "Venezuela's Troubles."

Friday—Messiah. (There will be no 10:30 classes Friday.)

Within the last year Harvard has erected six new buildings at a cost of $1,250,000.

One thing which colleges have to contend against is the manner, in which anything out of the ordinary, such as a class scrap, is written up by the daily papers. A couple of grains of truth, a few little circumstances as a foundation for a good story, and a class scrap which may have been in the best of feeling, is molded into a bloody riot with indescribable scenes of lawlessness.—S. S. C. I. Student.

According to yesterday's "Journal" the Athletic board "censured" the Senior class. This was not the case. The board merely voted to request the class not to wear the letter "N" upon their hats. There were several other minor mistakes, in the "write-up," but the above was the unfortunate.

The hack problem is still a matter of annoyance for the students who use them. The right move has been taken in the direction of protecting students from the livery men who make good money and no small amount of it during the college year.

The rate has been reduced by the hackmen to a small extent only, and the action which is now being carried on should be continued to a finish. It is by this co-operation that things come to pass.

We can not help but be amused at the spelling which a city paper has employed in the announcements of the Pershing hop. They have it "Perishing." Whether or not they were aiming at some description of the hop or not can only be conjectured. Those in attendance may be in a "perishing" condition before the evening's pleasure is over, or it may refer to the likelihood of some indiscreet persons incurring colds and congestion of the lungs, or it may have some other obscure meaning. It seems strange, if nothing like the above was intended, that such a name could be given to one of the best known and most popular events of the season.

Miss Weede and Mr. Fox who graduate this semester, have positions to teach for the coming semester.

C. P. Anderbery, law '94, who is now practicing at Minden, visited the historical society on matters of business Monday.

Professor Fling was called to South Dakota the fore part of the week, owing to the illness of his wife, who is visiting in that state.

Both the Sophomore caps and the Junior hats will be olive green. But the caps will be trimmed in violet and the hats in brown.

Dr. Roscoe Pound addressed the Candle Light club, which met last Monday evening at the Lincoln, on the "Weak Points of Our Jury System."

Miss Louise Pound and Adelynd Whiting entertained the girls who took part in the basket ball tournament Friday night at luncheon yesterday afternoon.

Every loyal student come out Thursday evening to the Armory and give your support to the basket ball team. The price of admission is 25 cents. The Pershing Rifle spell-down precedes the games.

The Union society held a special meeting in their hall yesterday during convocation hour. It was decided to have a group picture in the Sombrero, and a committee was appointed to confer with the members and set a time to sit at Townsend's for a picture. The society will take two pages of space in the Sombrero.

Mr. and Miss Barbour are working on the football casts which will contain the name and position of the players. These casts are of hard oak and will be placed in the gym with the others.

"Young man," said the professor, as he grabbed the frisky freshman by the shoulder, "I believe the devil has hold of you."

"I believe he has," was the reply.

The Union society basket ball team is the first minor team on the floor this year. They held a good practice Saturday at 2 p. m., and believe they can win the inter-society championship again this year.

Have you been through Calculus?" inquired the college professor of the newly arrived.

"Not unless I passed through at night on my way here," was the reply.

With many people reputation is largely a matter of locality; to them the quality of a thing depends on the place from which it comes.

In the matter of location the Effete East has an advantage over the Progressive West. People accord to one thing which the other has to secure by the hardest kind of fighting.

We may not be from Boston, but we make as good chocolates as anybody on earth. The taste is there; the quality is there; the appearance is there. What more do you want?
