HINT FOR HAPPINESS.

Devote yourself to it.
Be honest in everything.
Get into a business you like.
Save some money every week.
Sleep eight hours every night.
Do everything that means keeping good health.
School yourself not to worry. Worry kills—work does not.
Employ caution; think out a thing well before you enter upon it.

bate the affirmative side of the question.

There will be no official judges for

Prizes for Stock Judging

One feature of the Live Stock Judging Parliament that is to be held in Lincoln January 23-31 is a contest for prizes. Several prominent breeders, including Thomas Mortimer, of Madison; Riley Bros., of Albion; William Ernst, of Graf; W. A. Apperson, of Tecumseh; O. P. Hendershot, of Hebron; Col. F. M. Woods, U. S. A., the Nebraska Duroc-Jersey association and Professors Burnett and Smith offer sums aggregating over $100 for those showing the greatest proficiency in judging different classes of animals.
The contest will take place on the last day and will be open to all who enroll for the parliament.

Two carloads of choice young breeding bulls will be shipped in for practice work in the selection of sires.
Many of these will be available for purchase should they be wanted.

Practice will also be given on the selection of steers for the feed lot.

The programs of the various agricultural meetings which are to be held in Lincoln January 20-23 promise to be the most interesting ever given. The half rates on railroads are good until the close of the judging parliament following the meetings, so it is expected many will take advantage of the opportunities offered by attending both.

The indications are favorable for a large and enthusiastic gathering of stockmen.

The new book on agriculture which is being prepared by Professors Bessey, Bruner, Barbour, Burnett and Sweezy, will soon be out. It is to be used in the public schools throughout Nebraska.

The David Garrick Comedy company received quite a disappointment at York, the crowd being very small, but were fairly pleased with their attendance at Fairbury considering the stormy weather. Owing to Coach Booth's visit east the company has disbanded until next spring, when another play will be presented.

Mr. Rex Morehouse, a Phi Kappa Psi, was offered a good position in Omaha while home at Xmas and will President Angell and the faculty, has taken a decided stand against student betting. For betting on any event in which the university is a participant, a student will hereafter be suspended.
