Haskell Defeated

The Haskell Indian basket-ball team met defeat Tuesday night in Omaha at the hands of the Omaha Y. M. C. A. by a score of 21 to 11. The Indians were handicapped on account of the small size of the field and the loss of Shields, their regular guard, who sustained a broken finger in the game with the city Y. M. C. A. Monday night. The Red Men, it is said, were over-confident, while Omaha expected defeat. The game was fierce, but not rough. The first half ended 15 to 6 in favor of the Y. M. C. A. Omaha made 6 in the next and the Indians 5. Oliver threw two goals, Archiquette one, and Falls three fouls.

Prize Essay Contest

Are fraternities an aid or a hindrance to the development of the ideal college man? What is the value of the fraternity to college life? The rapid growth and development of the fraternity system in American colleges and universities during the last decade have made the answer to these questions of undeniable importance.

Appreciating the fact that insufficient data is at hand to warrant a logical answer to these questions, the New York Alumni Association of the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity has decided to give a prize of $50.00 for the best essay on the value of American college fraternities.

The aim of the Association is first, to get the facts, and second, to stimulate research in a new field of sociological thought. The judges will be representative literary men, chosen from the fraternity and non-fraternity ranks.

The contest will be governed by the following rules:

1. The subject of the essay written for this contest shall be "The Effect of the Fraternity on American College Life."

2. No essay shall contain more than three thousand words by actual count.

3. Any student pursuing a course of study leading to one of the recognized degrees in an American college or university may enter this contest, whether he be a member of a fraternity or not.

4. Each contestant shall, on or before the first day of May, 1903, mail to the chairman of the committee three typewritten copies of the competitive essay, signed in a pseudonym. He shall also, at the same time, send to the chairman of the committee a sealed envelope containing his name and address with his pseudonym on the outside.

5. The winner of the prize must, if requested by the committee, give the sources of his information and the grounds of his belief in regard to all matters not stated upon his personal knowledge.

6. Three judges to be selected by the Association shall pass upon the essays submitted and award the prize.

7. All essays submitted in this contest shall be the property of the Association and may be used as the Association shall direct.

8. As soon as the judges have made their decision, the committee will notify the successful contestant and the result will be announced in the Alpha Tau Omega Palm and other fraternity publications in June.

SENIOR LAWS ENTERTAIN

Faculty and Students Banqueted—Interesting Toasts—Good Fellowship Prevails.

Messrs. Ptak, Sather, Kutcher and Dobler, of the Senior Law class, gave a smoker to the Senior Law students and the law faculty Tuesday evening at 1235 U street. Twenty-four men were present. The rooms were tastefully decorated and music was furnished throughout the evening. After two hours of cigars and high five, a dinner was served at which C. A. Kutcher presided as toastmaster.

The toasts were as follows:
Early Experience of a Practitioner, Dean Reese.

The School Lawyer vs. the Office-Made Lawyer, C. A. Robbins.

Outlook of the Legal Profession, C. S. Lobingier.

The Law School as Viewed by the Student, Wm. Morrow.

Class Spirit, R. V. McGrew.

The Attorney's Place in Politics, H. H. Wilson.

This is the first event of the kind that has taken place in the history of the class and it is hoped by all who were present that it will not be the last. The hosts were especially pleased with the spirit of goodfellowship that prevailed among the students and between the students and faculty.

No Minnesota Game

Final word has been received from the Minnesota football management to the effect that a game could not be scheduled with Nebraska for next season. They state as a reason for this action that they now have as many heavy games scheduled as they can handle and they could not consider taking on another heavy game. They thus recognize the strength of the Nebraska team.

Further the latter states that Minnesota looks forward to the renewing of the past friendly relations in 1904. As a matter of fact it was either play Nebraska or Iowa, and as the latter is in the conference, she was given precedence.

The football management, Athletic Board and University in general are very sorry to see the continuity of the so far pleasant relations of the two western universities broken. It is desired that 1904 will again see the two colleges meeting on the field of contest.

Dellian Contest Program

At the last meeting of the Dellian Literary Society the girls challenged the boys to a contest program, the date of which is still to be decided upon. The challenge was accepted with the understanding that the losers are to entertain the winners by providing refreshments and treating them in proper style.
