Chose of Other Days

The wife of Everett B. Sawyer, '98, returned to Lincoln Wednesday after a visit to Elk Point, S. D.

Mr. Derrick N. Lemer, '93, and wife, of Berkeley, Cal., have announced to their friends the birth of a daughter on February 2.

Esther Prey Boomer (Mrs. J. F. Boomer, '99) has gone to York to visit her sister, Mrs. Jorgenson. She has been singing with success at Seward meetings.

Alumni should send copies of all their publications so that they may be placed in the alumni collection being gathered by the secretary, Jay A. Barrett, '88, at the rooms of the State Historical Society.

One of the alumni saw Mrs. I. D. Evans (Emma L. Williams) at Kene-saw Thursday, where she lives. She was one of the University students as long ago as 1874-75, and now has a daughter who is a junior in the University.

Daily Iowan, Feb. 10: President MacLean, who has been confined to his bed by illness for the last two days, was sufficiently improved today to get up and attend to the most urgent of his correspondence. It is hoped he will be able to be out by the last of the week.

Prof. R. Kent Beattie, '98, now professor of botany in the Agricultural College at Pullman, Wash., has been writing a series of valuable articles on "Nature Study," in the State College Bulletin published at that place. They might be copied with profit in the school journals published in this part of the world.

Jeremiah Rebmann, '98, who spent two years in the Philippines in the "Fighting First Nebraska" regiment, and who has been for a couple of years in the forestry bureau, is now in the Yale Forest School, New Haven, Conn. He writes that he has secured a good position in forestry work in Maine, and that he is to go there some time in the spring. He has also been offered a good position with one of the great railroads of the southwest and is likely to accept after his engagement in Maine is concluded.
