Miss Mildred Clark is seriously ill.

Registrar H. G. Shedd is back from his eastern trip.

Ralph Mansfield left yesterday for a few days' visit at his home in Wisner.

H. J. Sowles has been called to his home at Falls City by the illness of his father.

Miss Mary Roddy's father, of Nebraska City, visited with her between trains Saturday.

Dean Reese began his lectures on "Mines and Mining" Tuesday before his 2 o'clock law class.

Miss Jessie Rice is again able to attend classes after several days' absence on account of illness.

A. R. Groh, who attended the University last year, is at present traveling in France and Germany, pursuing special courses of study in those countries.

A party consisting of seven members of Sigma Chi went to Hickman Sunday, where they were entertained at dinner by J. L. Van Burg, whose home is at that place.

Professor Haynes of Morningside College, whose representatives debated Wesleyan last Friday night, was a first of the week visitor about the University campus.

Mrs. Peter Mortensen, wife of the state treasurer, and a number of the wives of state senators, visited Miss Howell's classes yesterday and attended convocation.

Our contributor on another page is a little in error in asserting that "one faculty member was present" at the Glee Club recital. There were two. We have their affidavits.

Bruce Benedict, mechanical engineering '01, now working in the Alliance division shops as assistant to the master mechanic, was a caller at engineering headquarters Monday.

Roscoe L. Wilhite, law '03, is absent on a business trip to Ainsworth.

At the class meeting Monday the senior laws took steps to secure Dr. Green to lecture before the class.

Arthus Welch, '02, who is taking the journalism course at Chicago this year, has been laid up with typhoid fever for a month at his home in Osceola. He expects to return to his Chicago work in a short time.

H. A. Swanson is temporarily called out of school by business interests. He will be back in a week or ten days.

F. E. Snider, law '00, now practicing in South Omaha, is in the city on business for a couple of days.

R. A. Trail, civil engineering '97, until recently engaged in work for the Mason City and Fort Dodge Construction company on the Omaha extension of the Chicago Great Western railway, paid the department a visit yesterday.

F. M. Richards has accepted the principalship of the Roca schools and has already left to enter upon his new duties there. He graduated at the mid-winter commencement and had registered for post-graduate work this semester. He succeeds H. M. Garrett, '02, who has accepted a position in the Beatrice high school.

SOMBRERO NOTICE. All persons who wish to put in the Sombrero matter of any kind whatever must have same in the hands of the editor by Saturday, March 7.

ALL students who are expecting to become candidates for the University teachers' certificate in June should consult with the head of the department of education regarding their work within the next two weeks.

LOCKERS Number 3, 5, 8, 12, 15, 16, 17, 27, 32, 35, 36, 44, 50, 55, 56, 58, 59, 61, 81, 88 and 95 are not accounted for in list in Physical Director's office. If these lockers are not accounted for before 6 p. m. Friday, March 6th, the locks will be cut off. R. G. Clapp.

NOTICE. The regular monthly supper and social will be given at All Souls' church on Wednesday evening, March 4, at 6 o'clock. The students' North Side league of Chapin Union will have charge of a candy table at which home-made candy will be on sale.

SENIORS. The committee on invitation and programs of the senior class desire that those who have designs to offer hand them to the committee at once, as it is necessary to come to some decision in order that we may not be late in getting out our programs. Committee.

JUNIORS. Because of mistakes in personal sketches and because some sketches are lacking, each junior who had his picture taken for the Sombrero is requested to fill out a blank. These blanks can be had in the hall of the library building Wednesday from 10 to 10:30, and from 11:20 to 12, and on Thursday at the same hours.
