

The Social Week

Band Dance Next Saturday Night.

Arrangements have now been completed whereby the first band dance will be given Saturday, March 21, two weeks from tonight. As was stated in this paper last Thursday, these dances, which are intended to be a semi-monthly occurrence, will be given for the purpose of making the equipment of the band more complete. New instruments and new music are needed and this plan has been selected as the one most likely to obtain good results.

The price of admission will be 50 cents—a small price indeed for a dance, and one which has been made possible by the use of the Armory. A large number of the society people of the University have already signified their intention of doing all in their power to make the occasion a success. A large crowd is assured for the first dance, and if that is made a success and conducted in the right manner, a crowd will be forthcoming at all succeeding events.

A mistaken idea seems to exist that the band is to furnish the music for the dancing. As a matter of fact all that the band has to do with the matter is to manage it and play for a promenade which will precede the dance proper. A down-town orchestra will be hired for the occasion, and in all other matters the affair will be conducted like other University dances given in the city halls.

Programs will be furnished and the floor prepared in the best way possible.

The Y. M. C. A. held its annual banquet at the Lindell Tuesday night. Previous to the banquet a committeeman's meeting was held in the parlors of the hotel and the work of the year outlined and discussed. At nine o'clock the dining room was opened and seventy-three seated themselves at the table. A seven course dinner was served, after which toasts were called for from members present. Dr. Condra presided as toastmaster and called for the following toasts:

- Chancellor Andrews—"Y. M. C. A. Spirit."
- B. G. Lewis—"Our Y. M. C. A."
- Dean Ringer—"Our Fellow Students."
- Prof. Davidson—"The Serious Side of Life."
- State Secretary Bailey—"Selfishness," "Spirit of Prayer," "Superficiality."
- Ex-Secretary John Moore—"The General work of Y. M. C. A. in Universities."
- Dr. A. R. Hill—"The Standpoint of the Advisory Board."
- International Secretary T. J. Colton—"Strong Men."
- Dr. Condra—"Are You Drifting? Are You Anchored?"

The banquet closed at twelve o'clock and was voted by all to be one of the most successful undertakings of the association.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon entertained a few ladies last evening with a dancing party at the house. A chafing dish supper was served during the evening. The following guests were present: Misses Holben, Spinney, Blakemore, Sprague, Casebeer, Crow, Wilson, Hammond, Halley, Burruss, Howell, Killiah, Stuart, Iler, Marshall and Ashmun.

A number of University girls held a masquerade party at 500 North Sixteenth street Saturday night. Several very unique costumes were worn. Wafers and chocolate were served.

The legal fraternity of Phi Delta Phi gave a smoker for the alumni at the Alpha Tau Omega house Thursday evening. Judge Roscoe Pound entertained the members with some "Practical Suggestions."

Ted Faulkner and Albert Beckman, both of this city, were initiated into Sigma Alpha Epsilon this morning. The annual banquet of the fraternity will be given at the Lindell hotel tonight.

The Omega Chi girls have received their new pins. The pins are all adorned with the regulation twelve jewels and are beauties.

The annual banquet of Phi Kappa Psi will be held at the chapter house on Saturday evening, March 21st.

On Wednesday, March 11th, Phi Delta Phi will entertain informally at Walsh hall.

"No, I haven't any news," replied one of the professors to a Nebraskan reporter, "and I wouldn't care to have it published if I did. It seems to me that you fellows are altogether too careless. Now, I don't take the paper, but I happened to pick up a copy the other day and I noticed a very bad error in an item reported from my department. It was stated that one of the girls in my first year class had been confined to her room for several days with an attack of the grip. As a matter of fact she merely had a bad cold and was not afflicted with the grip at all. I think that you owe it as a duty to the girl herself, to her friends and to the University in general to make known and apologize for this error. False impressions should not be allowed to live. While I don't take the paper, I don't like to see such rank and pernicious errors given prominence. Such a thing is an imposition upon the confidence and the good faith that the University as a whole has in its representative paper, and I feel that it is my duty to call your attention to this fact."

"I passed a whole bunch of forged checks, without anyone noticing me at all," said the consciously humorous Soph.

"How did you dare?" asked his fair companion, excitedly.

"Why I saw them on exhibition in the historical society and passed them by," was the answer.

First Co-ed—"Why do they call them 'civil' engineers?"

Second Co-ed—"Maybe because they're more polite than the railroad engineers."
