Nebraska Twice Loser.

The northern basket-ball tour resulted in two decisive defeats for the Cornhuskers. On Saturday night the Minnesota Agricultural College won from Nebraska by a score of 13 to 4. Saturday night Minnesota University took Nebraska into camp to the tune of 41 to 14. This outcome is not far from what was expected. Neither of these teams have been defeated this year, while Minnesota holds the western championship. The team returned yesterday morning at 1 a. m., considerably tired out and report having enjoyed a very fine trip. This closes the season for Nebraska, and Minnesota has played her last game of the year on her home floor. Ferguson umpired both games.

The Nebraska quintet is far from satisfied with the result of Friday night's game and claim that the score does not indicate the comparative strength of the two teams. The character of this game can be told in one word, namely, "football." Forty-two fouls were called during the game and two men were "knocked out." This shows the style of play. The Nebraska players complain strongly of the treatment received at the hands of the officials. The "Aggies" were the roughest proposition found this year and only fourteen fouls were called on them, while Nebraska suffered the penalty of just twice that number. Nebraska failed to throw a goal.

In the first half the Cornhuskers showed the effects of the long trip and were unable to reach their usual speed. Besides, it seemed an off night, as time and again the ball would refuse to enter the basket and only one foul was thrown out of four trials. The half ended 6 to 1 in favor of the "farmers."

In the second half Nebraska rallied wonderfully and played whirlwind ball, only to fail to find the basket. Here three fouls were thrown out of eleven trials and the game ended without a goal from the field.

For the agriculturalists, Tonhave, center, threw three goals, Stintson, forward, two, and Melicke, guard, two fouls. For Nebraska, Elliot threw three fouls and Hewitt two. The line-up:

Agriculturists.	Nebraska.
Stintson .....	F .....
Carlton .....	F .....
Tonhave .....	C .....
Melicke .....	G .....
Graham .....	G .....

The men are fairly well satisfied with the outcome of the University game, and Nebraska has reason to be content with the work of her team here. They threw four goals on the Gophers and Wisconsin failed to throw a single one. Besides, the Cornhuskers put up a better score than did the Wolverines, who were defeated recently by Minnesota by a score of 28 to 11. The admirers of the maroon and old gold were far from sparing in their praise of the work of the Nebraska team and the Gopher players were frank to confess that the wearers of the scarlet and cream gave them the hardest fight of the season. This is corroborated by a Minneapolis paper, which made the following statement: "Nebraska put up the gamiest fight of the season."

The Nebraska team was considerably handicapped owing to the shape of the field, which was one hundred feet long and only thirty-five wide. Their passes to forwards fell short as a usual thing and in advancing the ball up the field it would be thrown too hard. Throughout the entire game every Nebraskan was a star. Elliot made twelve of the fourteen points for his team. The Cornhusker guards held their swift opponents down to four goals. A peculiar thing about this game was that the guards and center threw fifteen of the nineteen goals for Minnesota. Nebraska's goals were all thrown from a very long distance, Elliot getting three out of the four made and Benedict the other.

In the first half Minnesota played with a rush which fairly carried the Cornhuskers off their feet and Leach threw a goal in less than a minute. Nebraska was unable to stem the tide of opposition and her opponents scored almost at will.

In the second half the Nebraska men had become somewhat accustomed to the floor and put up a much finer exhibition of ball. Their team work was excellent. The Gophers slackened considerably and Nebraska improved her advantage.

This game was free from all that marred the contest of the previous night. Both sides played clean basket-ball and no fault was found with the work of the officials. The University band furnished the music.

For Minnesota, goals from field: Leach 6, Tuck 5, Kiefer 4, Varco 3, Deering 1. For Nebraska, goals: Elliot 3, Benedict 1. Fouls: Deering 3 and Elliot 6. The line-up:

Minnesota.	Nebraska.
Tuck .....	C .....
Deering (Capt.) .....	F .....
Varco .....	F .....
Kiefer .....	G .....
Leach .....	G .....
Referee—Ireland.
Umpires—Ferguson and O'Keefe.

In a bowling match between the Alpha Theta Chis and Delta Upsilon Friday night the former won two games out of three. Previous to this the Delta Upsilon team held first place. Now every fraternity team has the same score of 500. Some very close and interesting contests will be necessary to determine the final standing of the contestants.
