FRESHMEN ON TOP.

Win from Seniors Last Night by a Score of 22 to 7.

The freshmen basket ball team defeated the seniors last night by a score of 22 to 7. While the game was very one-sided, it was nevertheless an exceedingly interesting contest. The upper classmen put up a plucky game and fought desperately to the very last. They succeeded in getting the ball near the basket frequently, but were unable to "put it in." The freshmen excelled in team work, and put up a swift and snappy play which could not be broken up by their opponents. Krake threw 5 goals in the first half, but Spafford kept him from making a point in the second. Buck did good work at guard and Milek at center for the seniors. The first half ended 14 to 5 in favor of the freshmen. In the second half the seniors took a wonderful brace and held the under classmen down to 8 points, but made only two themselves. Only one foul was thrown during the evening, and that by Golden in the first half. The crowd was very small, but nevertheless unusually enthusiastic, and considerable loud cheering was done. For the freshmen, Krake made 10 points, Lee 6, Horn 4, and Mathewson 2. For the seniors, Golden made 3, Milek 2, and Leonard 2. The line-up:

Seniors. Milek C. Leonard (Capt.)... F. Golden F. Spafford G. Buck G.	Freshmen. Horn C. Mathewson (C.)... F. Krake F. Lee G. Clark G.

Substitutes—Turner and Lovett.

The juniors and freshmen will probably contest for the championship this week.

The prevailing cloudy weather is the cause of great annoyance to photographers, making it almost impossible for them to get out their work. Mr. Townsend says if he has one week of clear weather he will have the orders for the junior and senior classes very well completed. He says the students are the most patient and long suffering class of customers that can be found.

Prof. N. Hill Nesbit is Here.

Four hundred Omaha people heartily endorse his method of teaching French. Free opening lectures in the First Christian church, corner 14th and M Sts., Thursday and Friday, at 10:30 a. m., 4:30 and 8 p. m. each day. Regular five weeks' course begins next Monday. DEBATARS HAVE TROUBLES.

Promotions Are Claimed to be in Violation of Constitution.

Some difficulty has arisen in the interstate debating squads over the recent action of the debating board in regard to placing the men on the different teams. Since the squads were selected two men have dropped off, leaving vacancies that had to be filled either by alternates or from other debating material. The present difficulty was occasioned by the appointment of a man already on one of the teams to fill a vacancy on another team, to the exclusion of the alternate, who naturally expected to be promoted to the vacant place.

The teams as announced on the 21st of last month were as follows:

Nebraska-Colorado College—John Columbus Doubt, 1903, University Place; William Frederick Meier, 1903, Lincoln; Ira Ryner, 1903, Cedar Rapids; John Nathaniel Norton, 1904, Stromsburg.

Nebraska-Kansas—Emory Roy Buckner, 1904, Olathe, Kan.; Richard Clinton James, 1903, Dunbar; George Arthur Lee, 1903, Humboldt; Guy Melvin Peters, 1904, Albion.

Nebraska-Missouri—Neil Michael Cronin, 1904, Sutton; Frederick Morris Hunter, 1904, Blue Rapids, Kan.; Burdette Gibson Lewis, 1904, Omaha; J. C. McReynolds, law '04, Lincoln.

Since that date Doubt has dropped off from the Colorado team on account of a severe attack of the rheumatism, which made it impossible for him to carry on his work. Alternate Norton was at once promoted to fill the vacancy, but last week he was compelled to resign the place, giving as his reason "the rush of University work."

To fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Norton, the debating board transferred Lewis from the Missouri team to the Colorado team, and put Ryner in Lewis' place on the Missouri squad, instead of promoting Alternate McReynolds. This action gives Ryner a place on both the Missouri and Colorado teams and leaves McReynolds still an alternate. The action of the board in this matter has been generally resented in debating circles and is called unconstitutional by men who figure prominently in University debating. The constitution of the debating association merely gives the board power to appoint three men on each interstate debating team proper and one alternate. The board, it seems, has gone beyond its powers in transferring men from one team to another, in ignoring an alternate and appointing one man for two positions. It is hoped that no serious trouble will ensue, however, because work on these debates ought not now to be interfered with. If any trouble is made over the matter, some of the most substantial debaters, it is claimed, will withdraw, which would upset the conditions of debate in the University and might cause a repetition of the record of two years ago.

As it now stands the teams are as follows:

Nebraska-Colorado—B. G. Lewis, W. F. Meier, Ira Ryner.
Nebraska-Missouri—N. M. Cronin, F. M. Hunter, Ira Ryner.
Nebraska-Kansas—E. R. Buckner, R. C. James; G. A. Lee and G. M. Peters as alternates.

Classes Deliberate.

The senior class met yesterday at 1 and listened to reports from the senior prom and senior annual committees. The former committee reported favorably on the progress of arrangements for the prom which occurs April 17. Plans are being laid for one of the best proms that the institution has ever enjoyed. The report of the editor of the class book revealed the fact that the business end of the enterprise is not coming on as well as was hoped, because of a lack of advertising support. An appeal was made to the class for support and aid in selling the books when they came out next month. One thousand copies will be printed, and if the entire lot can be disposed of at fifty cents each the management will make both ends meet. The book will be superior to any senior annual yet published in the University. More cuts are being inserted, so the management reports, than all other such books combined have printed. The publication will cost from two hundred to two hundred and fifty dollars more than last year's class put up for their book.

The juniors met yesterday and listened to reports by the senior class book committee and the Sombrero committee. The matter of space in the senior annual will be considered and acted upon later. Mr. Tobin reported that the money for junior representation in the Sombrero is almost all raised and can be turned over in a short time. The class voted to tender a reception to the seniors some time in May, and also to have a junior party, authorizing the president to appoint committees to arrange for these events.

April 17—Senior Prom.

It is reported that quite an epidemic of measles is prevalent among students.

Mr. Clark has recovered from the grip and is again at his post in the executive office.

E. G. Brown, '99, is visiting with his Phi Psi brothers and renewing old acquaintances about the University.

H. A. Swanson, who was called away two weeks ago by the illness of his father, returned to his school work yesterday.

Stephen B. Miles is on the sick list. He has obtained a two week's leave and gone to his home at Falls City to recuperate.

The P. B. D. C. has scheduled a debate with Doane College for April 17. The team that will represent the Palladians is composed of Clark, Monroe, and Brady.

The "Cigar Box Case" will be discussed by the Union and Palladian debating clubs next Saturday evening in Union hall. The Palladians argue in defense of the incidents connected with the affair, while the Unions will oppose them.

Mr. G. H. Holland of Falls City visited with his daughter Edna last Saturday. Mr. Holland is an alumnus of Iowa Wesleyan and a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. While here he attended the Phi Delta banquet Saturday evening.

Students who are in the habit of placing their books on the electric light wires which run under the large tables in the library are requested by the University officials to discontinue this practice. It not only deranges the wires, but offers the danger of a very severe electric shock.

At their regular business meeting last Friday evening the Union society elected the following officers: President, Erle B. Spofford; vice president, L. O. Pfeiffer; recording secretary, Miss Mary Maughlin; corresponding secretary, Miss Emma Meier; treasurer, E. E. Waltman; critic, Miss Annette Shotwell; sergeant-at-arms, Miss Eliza Meier.

Professor Moritz's memoir on the Generalization of the Differentiation Process," which appeared in a recent number of the American Journal of Mathematics, is creating considerable interest among mathematicians on the continent. Among recent orders for reprints of the memoir is one from Professor Mittag-Leffler, University of Stockholm, Sweden, and another from Vte. de Montessus, University of Lille, France.
