Staff Editorials.

The Nebraskan has been a little accused of "faking" in connection with the rather sensational item contained in one of its last week's issues. The charge is wholly without foundation. The Nebraskan confesses to some "yellow journalism" characteristics, but "faking" is one of these it has not yet acquired. No item of any importance has gone into its columns without being as thoroughly as possible investigated by one of its reporters. The paper has an ambition to tell all the news all the time; but it has no desire or intention of manufacturing "news" out of whole cloth. It can't yet be exactly said that "if you see it in the Nebraskan, it's true;" but it can be safely conjectured that anything appearing in its columns is believed by the paper's staff to be true.

While on this topic, it will do no harm to make a remark upon another "rumor," which is, that the faculty "censors" the Nebraskan's news columns. There is no censor but the managing editor, and he does not supervise in behalf of the faculty. Some members of the latter would be willing—maybe today—to testify to that. The Nebraskan exists neither for defending nor abusing the faculty. Its chief purpose is to express the sentiments of the whole institution—students, faculty, and everybody else. If it occasionally fails to do so, the fault is an unintentional one, and not a deliberate subjection of the paper's columns to personal or "faculty" ends. That's all for this time.

Calendar.

Thursday, March 19.—Kappa Kappa Gamma informal at the chapter house.
Saturday, March 21.—Saturday Night club at Walsh hall.
Saturday, March 21.—Band informal in the armory.
Monday, March 23.—Phi Kappa Psi banquet at the chapter house.
Friday, April 3.—Senior class party at the armory.
Friday, April 17.—Senior prom at the Lincoln.

Miss Edmiston entertained the active members of Kappa Kappa Gamma last evening.

Miss Lulu Alexander of Hastings and Misses Peterson, Randall and Towne, of Omaha, were entertained at the Theta house over Sunday.

The newly elected members of Phi Beta Kappa were initiated into the society Saturday night at the residence of Prof. T. M. Hodgman. Following the initiation a banquet was served for sixty. Dr. Pound spoke on the aims of the order.

Prof. and Mrs. T. M. Hodgman gave a series of six o'clock dinners last week in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Swearingen. After the dinners the guests were entertained by informal programs furnished by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller, Mrs. H. B. Ward, Mrs. E. T. Hartley and Prof. Lawrence Bruner. The serving was done by members of Kappa Alpha Theta.

About thirty young ladies were most successfully entertained at luncheon at the home of Mrs. Bessey Saturday afternoon. The were members of the basket ball teams participating in the tournament Friday evening. Scarlet and cream colors were used in decorating. The menu was prepared by young ladies from the domestic science department. Mrs. Bessey, Mrs. Barbour, Miss Barr and Miss Pound were the reception committee.

Last evening Kappa Epsilon, a society composed of upper classmen in the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity, held its fourth annual initiation. The following men were taken in: Geo. E. Douglas, Chas. Evi Shimer, Homer J. Southwick, Russell Harris. The impressive initiation was followed by a banquet at the Lincoln grill room, given by the active members to the new men. The toast list was as follows:

- Chas. W. Engel—"Mismanagement."
- Ernest Allen—"An Unbiased View."
- Russell Harris—"Fricassee."
- John J. Ledwith—"Postulations."
- Geo. E. Douglas—"Irenical Enjoyments."
- Geo. Johnson—"Voicing Our Sentiments."
- Chas. Evi Shimer—"My Clerical Functions."
- Homer Southwick—"Konsistent Endeavors."
- Edgar H. Clarke—"Wedlock."

Saturday night was the occasion of the annual banquets of both Phi Delta Theta and Delta Gamma.

The Phi Delt banquet was held in the ordinary of the grill room of the Lincoln hotel. The dining room was decorated in light blue and white, and the table was adorned with white carnations—the fraternity flower. Mr. Charles H. von Mansfelde called for the following toasts:

- "Phi's in Professional Life," Mr. Alvin Johnson.
- "Nicknames," Mr. Halleck Joseph Sowles.
- "The Active Chapter," Mr. L. P. Hewitt.
- "Theta Phi," Mr. E. B. Loomis.
- "A Ten-Striker," Mr. Gage Shannon.

"A Weary Traveler," Mr. Alex C. Lau.
"The Present Occasion," Mr. F. W. Lambert.
Those present from out of town were Messrs. Tukey, von Mansfelde, Sumner, Houck, McShane, True, and Johnson of Omaha; G. W. Holland and A. E. Gantt of Falls City.

The Delta Gammas banqueted at the home of Miss Ruth Bryan at College View Saturday night. Green and white were used in decorating. Miss Edith Lewis presided as toast-mistress, and between the courses the following toasts were heard:

- "Eldorado," Miss Mona Martin.
- "Looking Backward," Miss Jessie Lansing.
- "Prexy," Miss Roma Love.
- "Slaves of the Ring," Miss Abba Bowen.

Following the banquet a comedy entitled "Mr. Bob," was played by the young ladies in costume. The following was the cast:

- Phillip Royson.....Helen Welch
- Robert Brown, clerk.....Ruth Bryan
- Jenkins, a butler.....Grace Abbott
- Miss Rebecca Luke, maiden lady.....Grace Bridge
- Katherine Rodgers.....Margaret Honeywell
- Marian Bryant.....Loraine Comstock
- Patty, a maid.....Jessie Lansing
- Place—Seashore.
- Time—Summer; The Present.

Several alumni members from out of town were present, among them Misses Katherine Woods, Schuyler; Gertrude Walton, Blair; Mona Martin, Herberta Jaynes, Edith Dumont, Hortense Clark, Gertrude Macomber, Omaha.

The young ladies of the Pi Beta Phi sorority entertained the other sororities at a musical given at the home of Miss Ada Waugh Saturday afternoon. About eighty young ladies were in attendance and enjoyed a program of very high order rendered by the members of the sorority. Red candles, palms, ferns and carnations were used in decorating the reception rooms, while in the dining room wine and blue ribbons extending from the chandelier to the table gave a most pleasing effect. Mrs. George Risser served at the refreshment table and was assisted by Misses Rachel Nicholson, Elizabeth Heacock, Blanche Meeker and Charlotte Spalding. Misses Mabelle Miles, Sue Ashmun, Pearl Archibald and Elizabeth Heacock were on the reception committee.

The following program was rendered:

- Prelude and Fugue, C minor (Bach); Winifred Maddox Howell.
- "Marie," (Franz); "The Nest," (Lassen); Bessie Turner.
- Two Etudes, E major, Op. 10, No. 3, D major, Op. 25, No. 8, (Chopin); Alleyne Merriam Archibald.
- Silent Woe, Child Voices, Anathema, Resignation, The Elliland, (Von Feilitz); Florence La Selle Flake.
- "Oft I Have Seen," (Dell Acqua); Bessie Burruss.
- Idylle, (Von Feilitz); Hmynus, (Von Feilitz); Capricioso, (Von Feilitz); Anne Stuart.

New Belt Buckles and Sash Pins

The chief charm of the belts this season lies in their buckles. In fact so popular has the use of these ornaments become that they are considered by the merchant almost as staple as pearl buttons.

The most popular finishes are the oxidized, French gray, and royal copper.

BELT BUCKLES at 25c, 50c, 75c, and $1.00. The new patterns are exquisite, in large oval and square shapes and beautifully burnished.

THE BELT PINS at 10c, 25c, and 50c are much more varied and beautiful in style and finish than anything we have ever carried:

100 Patterns at 10c each      100 patterns at 25c each
50 patterns at 50c each

At 1c these are Art Nouveau designs, fancy heads grape patterns, cupids, coin shapes, etc.

The 25c pins are prettier than most goods we had last year for 50c. They include some plain pearl pins and hand painted porcelains.

For 50c there are beauties in pearl with painted minatures and those with royal copper finish combined with pearl or sterling silver.

Beautiful Neckwear
Turnovers, Stocks, lace collars

The large sales in the neckwear section testify to the great popularity of our styles. Not a day but sees something strikingly pretty added to the display.

A fine line of White Silk Stocks was added last week. They are embroidered in white or colors with cherries, grapes, leaves and Persian designs. Another style of silk stock is tucked with turnover of lace or embroidery and long ends to be tied in the back.

TURNOVERS

in those of great variety from plain hemstitched lawn to hand-made affairs of Duchess lace and Mexican drawn work. Some are furnished with tabs in front as long as the stocks themselves dare boast.

WIDE COLLARS

of hand-made Arabian lace, 60c and $1. Wide collars of Venice lace, 60c to $6.00.
