Lives of great men oft remind us,
We can make our life sublime;
For the man who wins the glory,
Is the grafter, not the grind.
—Wolverine.

Dean Burnett and Dr. Peters were in Fremont Saturday.

H. H. Roberts has quit the agricultural school and gone to his home at Norman.

Jesse Beans, a former U. of N. student, is now attending the Chicago Art School.

C. M. Teach, who is now the principal of the schools at David City, was in the city Saturday.

Harvey Garret came up from Beatrice Saturday morning and remained in the city over Sunday.

Miss Mabel Eckerson was summoned to Aurora Saturday by the serious illness of her grandfather.

L. W. Turner went to Cortland, Saturday evening, to spend Sunday with friends who reside there.

John Patterson made a trip to his home in Central City and back during the latter part of last week.

The class in English Literature 6 have taken up the study of "Carlyle's History of the French Revolution."

C. M. Teach, mid-year '03, now principal of the David City schools, spent his spring vacation in Lincoln, returning today to his David City work.

C. G. Marshall left for his new location Saturday. He will travel in the northern part of the state and represent Marshall Bros.' nursery of Arlington.

Professor Hinman has just recovered from a malignant attack of German measles, with which he was confined to the house the greater part of last week.

J. W. Sparks of Central City spent a few days the latter part of last week with his daughter Alice, who is taking post graduate work in the University.

Professor Dann has returned from his home in Ohio, where he was summoned two weeks ago by the serious illness of his father, whose condition has shown no improvement.

Mrs. Esther Prey Boomer expects to leave soon for Manila to join her husband, who went there a little over a year ago to teach school but finally became interested in newspaper work.

Prof. Arthur Allin, head of the department of philosophy and education in the University of Colorado, will lecture to the students of philosophy and education here on Monday evening, April 6th. The subject of the lecture will be "The Origin and Function of Play." All interested are invited to attend.

The senior class party will be held Friday evening, April 3d, at the armory. Tickets may be had from any member of the committee.

Misses Lucy and Lily Thomas, of Red Oak, Ia., visited in the city over Sunday, the guests of their cousins, Sherman Black and G. R. Logan of the university, who are from the same town.

Glen Chapman has been compelled to give up his work in the University on account of sickness. He left for his home in Aurora Saturday, but hopes to return within a few weeks if his health will permit.

Wm. Rice, who formerly attended the University and who is now the editor of the Central City Republican, spent Sunday and Monday in the city, visiting with his brother and sister and renewing old acquaintances among old University friends.
