University Calendar.
 May 1.—Missouri-Nebraska debate. Memorial hall.
 Saturday, May 2—Sophomore Party.

A little rain;
 A slippery walk;
 A little fall,
 Some wicked talk—
 That is an April day.

E. G. Spenser spent Saturday and Sunday in Avoca.

Dr. Hill was able to meet his classes again Monday after several days' illness.

E. E. Sprague was unable to attend school yesterday, owing to an attack of the grip.

Newell Elliot has been sick in Omaha since Easter. He is now rapidly recovering, however.

Mr. E. H. Clark is unable to perform his duties in the executive office on account of serious trouble with his eyes.

A. C. Horn, '02, is assisting Mr. Vavra in special work connected with agricultural chemistry at the state farm.

Guy Barnes, '02, of Norfolk, was in the city to attend the Delta Tau Delta banquet, at the Lincoln, Saturday night.

Dr. A. T. Peters, of the experiment station, has returned from institute work. He held an institute at Bassett Saturday.

Prof. G. E. Barber was suddenly called east on Sunday by the death of his mother. He will return on Tuesday evening.

Miss Zora M. Shields of the German department returned Monday morning to take charge of her classes after several days' absence on account of sickness.

Miss Patricia Naughton, who was detained at her home in Omaha at the close of the Easter vacation by the illness of her mother, has returned to her studies in the University.

The posters announcing the debate on the trust question between Missouri and Nebraska, which occurs May 1 in Memorial hall, have appeared on the bulletin boards about the campus.

Dr. E. H. Cook, of Boulder, Colorado, visited over Friday night and Saturday morning with his son, Mr. W. W. Cook, of the American history and law departments.

E. F. Munroe, J. H. Brady, and J. L. Clark, representing the P. B. D. C., went down to Crete Saturday evening and showed the Doane boys how to use evidence in debate. They report a glorious victory.

Miss Rachel Corr, assistant instructor in chemistry at the experiment station, has given up her work for the rest of the present school year, owing to ill health. She left Saturday for her home in Staplehurst.

Superintendent of Grounds Fee was a business visitor to Omaha the latter part of last week, returning Saturday morning. This week he is engaged in "breaking" a new mount he has just purchased for use on his daily trip to the state farm and back.

A student wanted to work about five hours a day, from 7 to 8 a. m., from 12 to 1:30 p. m., from 6 to 8 p. m.; to do office work, handle money and a few other things. Wages, $4.50 per week. Should be courteous, write a good hand, know how to treat patrons. Work is pleasant, but needs a responsible man. Apply to business manager of The Nebraskan.

Ask any good laundryman if this is not so.—"The Evans."

Lincoln Local Express transfers any old thing. Phone 787.
