Tom Bockes of Central City is visiting in the city with his cousin, Paul Ewing, and other University friends.

E. G. Spencer went to his home in Red Oak, Ia., Saturday to attend a wedding. He expects to return tomorrow.

The Y. W. C. A. will furnish the entertainment at the college settlement next Friday night—a musical program, supplemented by readings.

Dr. E. L. Corthell, who recently lectured before the engineering society, has sent to the library a pamphlet on "Argentine Past, Present, and Future."

About twenty-five pupils from the Dorchester high school, accompanied by Superintendent H. F. Hooper and Rev. Jackson, of Dorchester, visited the University yesterday.

Dr. Luckey is in receipt of an invitation to attend the dedication of the Speyer Experimental College for Teachers, New York city, to take place the 1st of May. The end of the year rush of work compels him to decline.

The Palladian debating club had an enthusiastic business meeting last Friday night, at which time the following officers were elected: President, T. M. Hewitt; vice-president, Louis Lightner; secretary, Jno. D. Brady; sergeant-at-arms, G. M. Hamilton.

Ralph Libby, who recently graduated from Dartmouth College, has been visiting in the city for the past few days with W. F. Fairchild. He is on his way to take a position under the U. S. coast and geodetic survey. He will have charge of a party near Ogden, Utah.

The mysterious "hare and hound" hunt previously mentioned in The Nebraskan will take place on Friday evening at 6:30, May 8th. All the Y. W. C. A. girls and their friends please remember not to make any other engagement, for a great amount of fun is in store for every one.

W. T. Horne, '98, received his formal notification on Friday to the effect that he had been appointed to a fellowship in botany in Columbia University, in New York city. It turns out that he was the only fortunate man to get a botanical fellowship, although it is known that there were about a dozen applicants.

John Westover occupied the class period yesterday at geology 15 with a description of the geography and geology of the Philippines. Mr. Westover spoke from a store of knowledge on the subject, gleaned from his Spanish-American war experiences. His talk was greatly appreciated by the class and he was given a round of cheers at the end of the hour.

At the Sunday afternoon meeting of the Y. W. C. A., Dr. Swearingen gave an interesting talk on "Religious Influences in the University." He spoke of the necessity of such organizations as the Y. W. C. A. for the good of the students intimately associated with it, as well as those outside. A vocal solo was rendered by Miss Pearl Archibald in her usual pleasing manner.

To the class of '05: Inasmuch as the upper classmen have given their respective programs at convocation and made them a success, both by the nature of the program and in the matter of attendance, it ought to appeal to the pride of each member of the class of '05 to support their program committee in the proper manner tomorrow morning. The committee guarantee an excellent program and ask for soph-

Let every soph see that every one else attends, even if it becomes necessary to use forcible measures. The lecture room under the chapel has been procured to meet in. Let every one come and make the program a success.—F. R. Beers, President.

A few days ago Professor Bessey was quite amused when the janitor brought in his mail to find that the two letters it contained came from the Island of Guam, and the Island of Luzon, respectively. Both were departmental, the first relating to the collection of botanical specimens for the University herbarium, and the other making inquiries in regard to the supply of young men for work in the Philippine forestry bureau.

Mr. Frank B. Sanborn will deliver his lecture, "Emerson as I Knew Him," at All Souls' church on Wednesday evening, April 29. Mr. Sanborn is the author of "The Personality of Emerson," and also the biographer of Emerson, Thoreau, Alcott and John Brown. The price of tickets for this lecture is 25 cents. Tickets may be secured at the registrar's office.
