Editorial Remarks

Next Saturday the second of The Nebraskan "special numbers" for this semester will appear. It will be chiefly devoted to Y. M. C. A. interests, and its special-feature pages will be prepared by the University association. Two other of these "special numbers" will follow the one of next Saturday. Their character will be announced later, nearer the time of their appearance.

Holidays are a demoralization; and the shorter, the more demoralizing. After a one day's lapse from regular work, classes take as long to get in touch again with their studies as if the vacation had been for one or two weeks. It is to be hoped the southern-world idea of numerous half and whole holidays does not gain school-world acceptance. Better a week's vacation once in two or three months, than half a holiday once every week or so. Upon unity or continuity depends in large part the value of any college course, and unity is impossible in the face of constant interruptions. Let us have longer vacations, and less of them.

Convocation Notes

Yesterday's Exercises:

Contrary to chapel announcement, the cadet band gave a concert during convocation period yesterday morning. A mass meeting in the interest of the debate had been advertised, a fact which probably accounted for the small crowd. A program of six numbers was rendered:

"The Banner of Freedom," Farrar
"Lucaetia" Farrar
"The Dance of the Honey Bees" Donizetti
"Columbriana" Farrar
"A Fairy Tale" Dalbey
"The New White House" Taylor

Each number was well executed and received with marks of evident favor. Professor Wilson responded to an encore, and at the end of the program played "America" to the delight of all.

After the musical program was completed, Dr. Ross announced the debate with Missouri for the evening, and extended a welcome to the debaters from Missouri, introducing Mr. Nelson, who thanked the audience for the courtesies already shown the visitors.

all that was doing for Washburn. In the eighth, Gill reached third base on a safe hit, but nothing came of it.

Hood, Townsend and Bender scored in the third, Beltzer walked in the fifth, and scored on a two-bagger by Townsend. Bender reached second on a nice hit, and Steen came to the rescue, and with a two-bagger scored Townsend and Bender.

Hood and Townsend in the sixth, and Bender and Steen in the eighth, completed the scoring.

The men all showed up in good shape, and although there is a good deal of new material in the team, the chances for a successful trip are fine. Summary:

Captain Townsend, Bender, Hood, Steen, Gore, Shelmer, Wilson, Beltzer, Longanecker, Morris, Whitcomb, and Manager Bell left at 3:15 this morning over the Rock Island for the eastern trip of two weeks duration. As will be noticed, Fetz is not among the number of men who make the trip. This is due to the action of the baseball committee, which lately rendered the decision that inasmuch as Mr. Fetz was rather deficient in his record as a student he was not eligible to membership on the team. Jim Bell, ex-captain '02, will also remain at home. Mr. Bell has decided to discontinue his studies in the law school, and will no longer play on the 'varsity. These two changes will considerably weaken the team, but will leave it strong enough to ably sustain the reputation of the U. of N. in athletics.

Hood will play third base as usual and Bender will spend most of his time behind the bat, but the presence of Whitcomb will make it possible for him to alternate between that position and the outfield. Shelmer and Gore will hold down center and left field, respectively, and Wilson will be on first. Townsend and Steen will play short and second. The pitching will be divided between Beltzer, Townsend, Longanecker, and Morris, and right field will be played by one of the four.

STETSON HATS, AGAIN

We are fortunate to again receive another lot of the popular full shape Stetson Hat, the "Sportsman." Saturday we place on sale these hats in all sizes in black and pearl. The greatest university hat worn. If interested, come today.

MAGEE & DEEMER

The schedule is practically the same as last year. The first game will be played with our old-time friend and rival, Highland Park, where the team will Sunday. The Iowa state at Iowa City will be met on Monday, and on Tuesday the professional team at Decorah, Iowa, will be the opponents. Knox and Lombard at Galesburg will be played on Wednesday and Thursday, and Notre Dame on Friday. Saturday and Sunday will be spent at Purdue, and the next week the team will meet the Illinois State at Champaign, Washington at St. Louis, Washburn at Topeka, Kansas, two games on Thursday and Friday, and on Saturday, Manhattan and St. Mary's.

In all, there will be fourteen games played. Lombard, Illinois, and Washington College are the only new teams on the schedule. Every team that the 'varsity will meet is a good one, and every game will require hard work. The men are confident of winning a majority of the games.

Dr. James H. Peabody, of Omaha, has just presented to the University library, through Chancellor Andrews, two rare volumes published by subscription and printed privately, treating of the inside history of the war with Tripoli, in 1799 to 1803. They furnish an account of the official life of James Leander Cathcart, who served as a midshipman in the American navy during the War of the Revolution, and who was captured at the close of that struggle on the coast of Spain, and taken, with other United States prisoners, to Algiers and cruelly mistreated by the government of the Barbary States. The young man later became consul general to the Barbary States, and his daughter, now ninety years of age, recently came into possession of the manuscript of his official career, which has been published in the two volumes noted above. They form exceedingly important contributions to the history of that period, and the University library welcomes this gift.
