STUDENTS TO GIVE $3,000.

Plans Are Completed for Rockefeller "Temple" Canvass.

The committee to complete the $100,000 temple fund has finally completed its plans for raising the $33,000. Arrangements have been made whereby anyone who wishes to contribute toward the fund can do so by either large or small amounts. Blanks have been printed and will be distributed for those who will be asked to pledge for larger sums, while hand books, bound in neat form, will be put into the hands of students, alumni and friends of the university who will be expected to solicit among the people of the state. The books are of different sizes, the smallest containing space for ten names. Besides these measures, the students of the University who more than any one else ought to take an interest in the matter, will be given an opportunity to contribute their quota. According to the plan, each student will be personally canvassed by committees appointed for that purpose.

Several days ago the chancellor called the presidents of the different classes into his office, laid the plan before them and asked for their co-operation in carrying out the scheme. Each president will be furnished with a list of students in his class. He will appoint out of the number a committee of four boys and two girls who are to act with the president himself in securing the student subscriptions, which the chancellor thinks ought to average at least one dollar each for the entire school. The law school will be asked to pursue the same course that the academies have promised to follow. Tomorrow's convocation will be given over to the presidents of the four classes, who will take the opportunity to explain the working of the scheme. Chancellor Andrews will also speak, and explain further his views on the Rockefeller gift.

Some criticism of the proposition to accept the gift has been heard about the campus. Those who are opposed to receiving the $66,000 contend that Nebraska can build up her own school. Chancellor Andrews is heartily in favor of accepting the gift of Mr. Rockefeller's contribution, and does not share the sentiments of those who are unfavorable. He thinks the building to be erected with the money is one of the greatest needs of the University, and one that no legislature could be induced to give to the institution. If the students generously respond, about $3,000 will be raised by this subscription.

Decoration Day Excursion.

Final arrangements have been made for the Decoration day excursion to the cadet encampment at Wahoo. Tickets will be put on sale tomorrow with the cadet officers, and at the executive office. The number of tickets sold with the meal ticket coupon will be limited to the number the cooks will be able to supply food for, so students wishing to go and take their best girls should secure their tickets early. Special trains will be run, leaving Lincoln at 7 and 9 o'clock a. m., and 1:45 p. m., and returning at 9 a. m. and 5 or 9 p. m. The excursion will be over the Northwestern line, and ample accommodations will be on hand to take care of the crowd.

Interesting Football Statistics.

(Daily Californian.)

Professor Edwin G. Dexter of the University of Illinois, noted as a statistician, has compiled an interesting set of figures on college football covering ten years from 1893 to 1902. In summarizing up the results of his compilations Professor Dexter states them briefly as follows:

1. About one college man in ten the country over, plays football.
2. About twice as large a proportion of the men in the small colleges play the game as in the large.
3. The proportion of men playing seems to be slightly decreasing.
4. About one player in thirty-five is sufficiently injured each season as to necessitate loss of time from college duties.
5. The number of college football players who are permanently injured or die from the effects of the game is so small as to be practically a negligible quantity.
6. College football is adequately supervised in nearly all institutions.

7. The opinions of college officers regarding the value of the game are, roughly, 17 to 1 in favor (weighed in terms of enrollment).

8. The newspaper reports of injuries to college football players seem to be grossly exaggerated. Not so much so in the case of players upon other teams.

TIME IS EXTENDED.

Songs for $100 Prize May Be Handed in Till May 10.

The Nebraskan has endeavored to keep the matter of a college song before the students and friends of the University. The need of a song distinctly for the University of Nebraska is apparent. This need was realized, and one hundred dollars were offered for the best Nebraska song. The offer was made about a year ago, and it was understood that the first of May was the date set when the last manuscript would be received by the committee, which consists of Dr. Sherman, Professor Fossler and Professor Jones of Tennessee. The limit has been extended, however, to May 10th, which will give several days more for copy to come in; and the announcement of the result instead of being made on May 10th, as was reported, will not be made until toward the close of the semester. This is made necessary by the fact that the third member of the committee of judges lives at so great a distance from here. All manuscript will have to be sent to Tennessee, for the opinion of Professor Jones, after Professors Sherman and Fossler have passed upon it.

The prize being such a large one it was naturally supposed that a large number of entries would be made for the contest. Such is not the case, however. At the present time only eight entries have been made, but it is hoped that by the tenth of the month a larger number will have responded to the call for an exercise of Nebraska talent.

WINS THE THIRD ONE.

Nebraska Goose Eggs Lutherans and Gets Two Scores.

Nebraska yesterday retrieved her defeat on Monday by trouncing the colors of Luther college in the dust. Nebraska took a strong brace and played in her usual form, giving her opponents a shutout and crossing home plate twice herself. The result of this game is especially gratifying from the fact that it in a way makes good the defeat by Iowa the day before, since Luther college recently defeated Iowa Luther college recently defeated Iowa by a score of 9 to 3. In a special report from a Nebraskan correspondent it is said that yesterday's game was an exceptionally good one. Longaenecker proved hard to hit and fanned eight men. Only five errors and five hits were made by both teams. Nebraska making three in each case.

The telegram follows:

In the best game of the season the Cornhuskers shut out Luther college and scored twice herself. The men took a big brace today and gave Longaenecker the support deserved by Capt. Townsend yesterday. Luther defeated Iowa 9 to 3 the other day, and thus Cornhuskers feel somewhat compensated for their poor showing yesterday.

Score by innings:

Nebraska	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Iowa	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

Luther

Hits: Nebraska 3; Luther 2. Errors: Nebraska 3; Luther 2.

Struck out by Longaenecker 8, by Sevareid 3.

Batteries: Longaenecker and Bender; Sevareid and Brekke.

Nebraska lost her first college game Monday at the hands of Iowa to the tune of 7 to 3. This news came as a surprise to all, as Iowa was not considered to be a very strong foe. Nevertheless the Hawkeyes were in to win and make up for a string of past defeats by the Nebraskans. In this contest Nebraska seemed to have an off day. She was unable to wield the stick in her ordinary fashion and made many costly errors. On the other hand, Iowa put up a fine article of the national game, making only two errors. Townsend filled the box for Nebraska and Bender caught. Today the Cornhuskers meet Knox.

Now that first team base ball is being played at a distance, the second team is getting in its work. It yesterday defeated the Lincoln high school in seven innings by a score of 6 to 4. Those who were in the game for the second team are Thompson first, Johnson second, Rhubesky third, Ramsey short, with Ling, Chase and Williams in the field. On Thursday the team goes to Havelock to meet the Havelock nine.

Senior-Junior Today.

The seniors will meet the juniors today at 1:15 in the first inter-class baseball game of the season. The managers of the teams urge their classmates to turn out and support their nines. This is the first of the championship series. A small admission fee—10 cents—will be charged, in order to acquire a fund from which to purchase the championship hats to be awarded the final victors.

Phi Delt Win a Game.

Phi Delta Theta yesterday established its supremacy on the diamond over Delta Upsilon in a six inning game. Pollard for the Delta U's, and Raymond for the Phi Deltas, each scored in the first inning. Reed and Hoffman each crossed the home plate in the third and in the next Jenne and White each evened up the score. Neely made the decisive run for the Phi Deltas. Final score: Phi Delta Theta, 4; Delta Upsilon, 3. The line up:

MINNESOTA WANTS MEET.

Once Refused to Come, But Now Asks for Nebraska Date.

Track athletics have assumed another peculiar attitude. Minnesota wants to meet the Cornhuskers in Minneapolis on May 16. This information was received Monday by Dr. Clapp in the way of the following telegram from Coach Williams: 'Can you come to Minneapolis for dual track meet with Minnesota May 16 for actual expenses guaranteed? Please answer immediately.' The following reply was wired at once: 'Have Knox meet scheduled for May 16. Very sorry.' This reply brought another telegram yesterday as follows: 'Regular inter-collegiate program and mile relay race and representation in every event. Firsts only to count. $50 expense limit. Return meet next year.'

The department is a little at a loss to know just how to interpret this last telegram from the Gopher management. Either some mistake was made in sending Nebraska's reply or Minnesota desired to offer a greater inducement to get the meet. The latter is likely the case as it is a good offer. At any rate, Dr. Clapp has written the Minnesota management definitely in regard to the matter.

Some time ago the Nebraska management made a desperate effort to bring Minnesota here but were unable to do so. Now a home meet has been scheduled with Knox on the very date Minnesota desires a meet in Minneapolis. Further, this date is little more than a week away. Minnesota's offer of $350 and a return meet next year might have been quite favorably considered two weeks ago, but it is almost certain that nothing will be done in regard to it now. The Cornhusker management desires a good home meet and will certainly get it.

Morning drill by the cadets has begun in earnest, and that all the companies are equally enthusiastic in the contest for the cup is shown by the fact that they all turn out in equal force in the morning, many of the boys even missing their breakfasts in order to be on time. The competitive drill this year will probably be one of the best yet held.
