Miss Joy Grimm spent Sunday at her home in Roca.

Paul Brockway is back in school after a week's illness.

The Sigma Chi's will give a party in Walsh hall tomorrow evening.

C. A. Hawxby, '01, was in the city Monday, conducting a case in the supreme court.

Alpha Theta Chi will give its annual banquet Friday evening, May 8th, at the Lindell.

A new pendulum chronoscope is a valuable addition to the psychological laboratory apparatus.

Miss Marie Barney is back in school after a week's absence on account of the illness of her nephew.

Mrs. Griffin of Fairbury is spending a few days with her daughters, Misses Anna and Zella Griffin.

C. E. Miller has secured a position for next summer, as chairman with a surveying party in the employ of the Northwestern railroad.

Miss Mattie Allen is carrying her arm in a sling as the result of a fracture of the forearm, sustained in a fall from her bicycle last week.

"Dandelion Park" will soon be an appropriate name for the campus, unless a radical campaign is quickly set on foot by the proper authorities.

Miss Cora Wise, who took her degree in February, has gone to the Omaha Indian agency in the northern part of the state, where she will teach the rest of the year.

Professor Moore, of the physics department, who has been suffering from a rather severe attack of pneumonia, is recovering rapidly, and will be able to meet his classes in a few days.

"Deacon" Koehler, '02, has finished his year's work in Chicago University, and has come back to Nebraska. He will preach in Kansas during the summer, but is now visiting friends here.

Dress parade and review will be held Friday afternoon, instead of Thursday. In order to show the visiting high schools what the military department is. Friday classes will meet and recite Thursday in their respective class rooms.

C. E. Farley, of last year's sophomore class, is in the city, calling on University friends. Mr. Farley is in the real estate business with his brother at Bancroft. He reports a very good business. He contemplates going to Columbia next year.

The government inspector will visit the University and inspect the military department some day this week. All cadets are ordered to clean their equipment and put it in perfect condition, also to be in readiness to fall in for inspection at any time during the remainder of the week. White duck trousers will be worn, and they must be newly laundered.

Dr. Bolton will go to Colorado today to deliver a course of three lectures in return for Dr. Allin's recent lecture here before the philosophical and pedagogical clubs. The lectures will be given on Thursday night and during Friday on the following topics: "Functions of Mind in Animal and Human Life," "The Relation of Pleasure and Pain to Emotion," and "Effects of Pastimes." The doctor will not return until Sunday or Monday.

The Steiner-Woempener Drug Co.'s soda fountain, Twelfth and O, has a reputation for cool refreshing drinks. Those delicious ice cream sodas with fruits in season are a delight to students.
