Freshies Found Out.

The freshies who were so active in returning a bad compliment to the sophomores a week ago Saturday night at the sophomore party may be compelled to pay for their pranks in a way very unbecoming to students of the University. It will be remembered that a company of freshmen hung about the armory and hampered the sophomores as they went to and from the hall. They threw lamp-black, fire extinguisher and even eggs of a poor quality at the sophs, and little care was given to whether there were ladies with the young men or not.

The trouble was occasioned by some innocent tricks that the sophs had played on the freshmen at the time of their party some time previous.

For their extravagance of eggs and fire extinguisher some of the freshies may have to suffer; for, according to yesterday's Star, a detective who has been at work on the case has finally located the ringleaders of the gang and they will soon be called before the University authorities to answer for their offense. If such be the case, these twelve freshmen, who are said to have constituted the crowd a week ago, will probably be compelled to leave school.

Graduate Club.

The Graduate club met with Dean and Mrs. Sherman on Friday evening. Professor Clements read a paper on "Recent Evidence on Evolution," giving a concise review of the history of the subject, and stating many facts which are not known to the general student and yet are essential to a fair comprehension of the subject.

Dr. Lillie gave an exhaustive account of the recent experiments of Dr. Loeb, of the University of California, recently of the University of Chicago. The speaker deplored the notoriety which the sensational Chicago press had given Dr. Loeb, since this gives the impression that Loeb is sensational rather than sound as a scientist.

Miss Hagenow played Kafke's "Heimats Klange," with characteristic finnish, and Miss Gertrude Ernst rendered with remarkably fine interpretation, Nevin's "Barchetto" and Schumann's "Nachtstück."

After the transaction of routine business the club elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Professor R. E. Wolcott; secretary, F. J. Bates; treasurer, Professor Engberg.

Late Society Notes.

The sororities held a very successful Pan-Hellenic meeting in the armory Saturday afternoon. Nearly every sorority girl in school was present, and an excellent time was enjoyed by all. The meeting convened at 2:30 p. m., and after an informal reception a short program consisting of vocal and instrumental numbers and recitations was called for. After the program a "stag" dance was given, and continued the rest of the afternoon.

*

The junior-senior reception was held in the armory Saturday night, and passed off very successfully without interruption from either of the lower classes. Dancing was the principal amusement of the evening, and those present enjoyed a program of sixteen regular dances and three extras. As the floor had been used to good advantage in the Pan-Hellenic meeting in the afternoon, it was in excellent shape. Ping-pong and card tables in the chapel furnished entertainment for those who did not dance. Ices were served during the evening. Complimentary tickets were issued to all seniors, and many took advantage of the opportunity to enjoy the reception in their honor. Other admission was by ticket. About forty couples were present. James Van Burg was chairman of the committee on arrangements.

*

Invitations have been issued to all seniors to be present at a reception to be given by Chancellor and Mrs. Andrews at their home Friday night. The officers of the class also expect to receive the members of the class Saturday night. The latter affair will be held in the art gallery of the library from 8 to 10 o'clock.

Northfield Student Conference.

Last year about a thousand young men from the eastern colleges and preparatory schools attended the Northfield student conference. At this conference the mornings and evenings were spent in training the men in the most effective and aggressive methods of Christian work; the afternoons in athletic contests and social times. These afternoons gave an opportunity, which is rarely found, for men from one college to meet men from other colleges and for students of the secondary schools to get acquainted with university men. The most prominent men in the college world were there. Men who have been on big debating teams and figured on "All Americas." Such leaders as Frantz and Lightner of Harvard, Captain Chadwick of Yale, Hutchinson of Princeton, Marshall of Columbia, and McCracken of Pennsylvania. One of the most interesting forms of recreation at this conference is the Fourth of July celebration which the universal opinion of those in attendance in past years adjudges to be the most unique of its kind in existence.

The conference this year takes place from June 26 to July 5. It will be as strongly representative and have as powerful speakers as any past conference. A few of the speakers are Mr. Robert E. Speer, Hon. S. B. Chaplin, Anson Phelps Stokes, G. Campbell Morgan and John R. Mott, who will preside. It is the earnest wish of the directors that every preparatory school and college of the east may be represented there this summer. The expenses are light. Camp Northfield, open all summer, registered 500 men last season. The conference is not a money-making scheme. It is run by students for the benefit of students, and it is the one link-free from rivalry, devoid of athletic rancor—which binds together the colleges.
