Dean Lees sailed from New York yesterday morning at 10 o'clock on his European tour.

Norton Ware made a business trip to Omaha, remaining over Saturday and Monday.

The hare and hound chase that was to have taken place yesterday has been postponed until the 20th.

Professor Bolton has returned from Colorado where he delivered a series of lectures at Colorado College.

Miss Lottie Scherzer, '03, has been elected as teacher of German and history in the Auburn high school.

O. A. Ellis, who has recently been ill with the mumps, has gone to his home in Panama. He expects to return in a few days.

Miss Edna Damon, of Omaha, is visiting with her sister, Miss Corris Damon, and with friends in the University.

Robert McReynolds, '03, made a trip to Omaha Saturday, returning Monday, to look after summer's employment in the Union Pacific shops.

Dr. Ward is back from a ten days' visit at New Orleans, where he was in attendance upon the meeting of the American Medical association.

The Union Pacific railway is offering inducements to mechanical engineering students to work in the shops during the summer. They also offer permanent employment.

Miss Virginia Hoffman, secretary to the chancellor, now has charge of the University teachers' bureau, which assists graduates of this University in securing positions as teachers.

Mr. Fred Watson, '97, was a caller at the civil engineering department a short time yesterday. Mr. Watson is resident engineer on the C. R. I. & P. railroad and is located at Guthrie, Okla.

Next Saturday teams representing the Palladian and Union societies will cross bats on the athletic field. Both of the teams are reputed to be strong, and considerable rivalry exists between them.

Professor Richards recently made a set of plans for proposed shop building for the school of agriculture which will give place for work in carpentry, blacksmithing, and the design and operation of farm machinery.

The continued wet weather is unfavorable to our tennis players as well as track men. The preliminaries for choosing men to represent Nebraska in the tournament on the 29th were to have come off yesterday, but have now been postponed.

Professor Richards recently received an invitation to attend the dedication of the new engineering hall at Ames, Iowa, Friday, May 22. Addresses are to be delivered by Dr. R. H. Thurston, of Cornell University; Mr. W. Clyde Jones, of Chicago, and Mr. M. J. Riggs, of Toledo, Ohio.

Word comes from Bryn Mawr that Miss Winnifred Hyde, A. B. '00, has been again awarded the fellowship in philosophy. It is very rarely that this fellowship is renewed, and Miss Hyde's second election is evidence of the brilliant record she has made there this year.

TWO OUTLETS TO THE SEACOAST.

The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific has always been considered a great railroad, managed by great men, and running through the best portion of the United States. Within the past twelve months it has secured one of the most important outlets in the south and its recent deal in securing control of the St. Louis & San Francisco places this road in greater popular favor than ever with two sea coast outlets—Sabine Pass and Galveston.

$3.00 commutation ticket for $2.70 at the Merchants' Cafe, 117 No. 12th St. Students are cordially invited.

We are proud of the fact that the new things in photography are introduced in Lincoln by us. Visit our studio and see for yourself.—Townsend's Elite Studio.
