

The Social Week

Calendar.

Monday, May 18.—Mr. O. J. Fee will give a party for the Sigma Chis at his home, Seventeenth and F streets.
 Tuesday, May 19.—Kappa Kappa Gamma banquet at the Lindell.
 Tuesday, May 19.—Sigma Alpha Epsilon will give a pre-nuptial shower for Fred Funke at the chapter house.
 Wednesday, May 20.—University girls' party at Walsh hall.
 Thursday, May 21.—Pan-Hellenic barbecue at Cushman park.
 Friday, May 22.—Annual Pan-Hellenic dance in the Auditorium.

Miss Wilma Casebeer is visiting in the city.

Miss Kate Heacock is confined to her room this week on account of illness.

Miss Emily Jenkins, of Fairbury, arrived in the city yesterday and will make the Kappa house her home until after the Kappa banquet Tuesday night.

Miss Mabelle Miles left Tuesday for her home in Falls City. After a few days' visit she will join her parents in California.

Owing to the fact that the chancellor's reception occurred last night, the reception given by the senior officers, which was to have been given tonight, has been postponed.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon gave a smoker Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. G. L. Doughty, a Sig alumnus from the Ohio Wesleyan. Mr. Arthur Hansen, from Harvard, also visited at the house during the week.

Alpha Theta Chi entertained the Nebraska debaters, with their instructor, Professor Fogg, Thursday evening at the chapter house. The guests were Messrs. Buckner, Ryner, Meier, Lewis, and James.

The Nebraska Schoolmasters' club met at the Lincoln hotel last night at 6:30. The paper of the evening was read by Professor Charles Fordyce, of Wesleyan. The subject was "Avoidable Causes of Nervous Tension in the Schoolroom." The discussion was opened by W. L. Stephens, of Beatrice, and five-minute talks were given by various members of the club. At 7:15 a banquet was served.

The Schoolmasters' club is an aristocratic association of prominent state educators, limited to thirty in number. Usually the members only are invited to the meetings, but last night being the last meeting of the year, each member brought a lady.

It isn't the fault of the hares that the roads were too muddy to lead the hounds a chase. But their enthusiasm has only been increased by the delay, and they are ready for all the hounds on Wednesday night. There will be three pairs of hares, each pair leading off in a separate direction, but all meeting at the same place in the end. The hares are Elva Sly, Alice Towne, Nellie Athen, Grace Trigg, Ruth Woodsmall and Ruth Wilson. They will leave the University Y. W. C. A. at six, and the hounds will follow at seven. Don't let the early hour keep anyone away, as refreshments will be served after the hunt. Every girl in the University is urged to come, but she must register her name by Tuesday at the Y. W. C. A. rooms.

TWO OUTLETS TO THE SEACOAST.

The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific has always been considered a great railroad, managed by great men, and running through the best portion of the United States. Within the past twelve months it has secured one of the most important outlets in the south and its recent deal in securing control of the St. Louis & San Francisco places this road in greater popular favor than ever with two sea coast outlets—Sabine Pass and Galveston.

University Calendar.

Saturday, May 16—Knox-Nebraska track meet.
 Wednesday, May 20, 6:30 p. m.—Y. W. C. A. "hare and hounds hunt."
 Friday-Saturday, May 29-30—Kansas-Nebraska tennis tournament.
 Saturday, May 30—Decoration day excursion cadet encampment at Wahoo.

R. C. Smith has been kept out of school this week by a siege of measles.

Miss Sadie Fowler has secured a position in the high school at Auburn.

R. B. Montgomery is obliged to be absent from classes on account of rheumatism.

Miss Erma Spafford has been called to her home at Hubbell by the death of a relative.

The class in plant pathology is now engaged in reading the papers prepared by the members on various diseases of plants. Professor Bessey is arranging to have the best papers published in the near future.

Dr. Waite of the medical college will give a lecture on "The Black Plague" next Thursday evening, April 21, before the Medical society. A good attendance is desired. All those interested in science are urged to be present.

Professor Bessey is now consulting with students in his department who are thinking of continuing the study of botany or forestry. As he expects to be absent at the opening of the fall semester, he wishes to see every one now who intends to continue in either line.

Mr. C. M. Heck, of Raleigh, N. C., fellow in physics, leaves Monday morning for an extended trip through Texas, California, and Colorado, spending two weeks in the Rockies. Mr. Heck will not return to Nebraska next year, but will go to Berlin to continue his studies in physics for doctor's degree at the University of Berlin.

Seventy-two of this year's senior class will take the University teachers' certificate in June. This number constitutes over one-half of the class, and is a gain of twenty-four over last year. Nearly one-half of these have already secured positions for next year, while all of the eleven who graduated in February have already been supplied.

Today (Saturday) will occur the final examination of John L. Sheldon for the degree of doctor of philosophy. It is to be conducted by a committee consisting of Professors Bessey, Bruner, and Lyon, under whom Mr. Sheldon has been doing his work. The oral examination will be held in room 104, University hall, beginning at 1:30 p. m.

Knox-Nebraska Meet.

"The people in our town have taken a fancy to literary pursuits."
 "Why, how's that?"
 "They turned out yesterday and ran all the spring poets out of town."

School of Music Notes.

The following series of concerts and recitals will be given by the school of music in the near future:

Next Tuesday evening, Miss Florence Fliske, contralto, assisted by Misses Alleyne Archibald and Pauline Meyer, pianists.

Tuesday evening, May 26th, a concerto evening by students from the class of Mr. Henry Eames. Mr. Eames will play the orchestral parts on the second piano.

On May 28th, a graduating recital by Miss Louise Hargreaves, pianist, and Miss Elva Walker, violinist.

The following week, a recital of original compositions by students from the advanced harmony classes under Mr. Kirkpatrick.

The annual concerts of the school will take place Friday and Saturday evenings, June 5th and 6th. This will close the annual series of public performances given by the school, to all of which the public is cordially invited.

Miss Ruth Johnson has been confined to her room for the past week on account of the measles.

Miss Belle Gullfoll, of Hyannis, has been spending a week with her sister, Miss Marjorie.

Miss Nellie House spent Sunday with friends at Exeter.

Miss Edith Anderson, of Peru, spent a few days this week with Miss Blanche Roberts.

The time is here,
 The joyous time when I
 Can shed my vest and live
 In coatless negligee and fancy socks and I
 Can hike out to the bleachers and
 There gladly give my hard-earned pson
 To sit with other fans and yell
 And broil and shriek in fiendish glee,
 "Kill the robber," and
 "Slide, you lobster, slide!"
 Oh, joy is me! Oh, Hully Gee!
