R. J. Anderson returned yesterday from a week's business visit in the vicinity of Raymond.

George F. Warren, '97, writes from Cornell University that he has been awarded a fellowship in agriculture in that university for the coming year.
 He is specializing in agriculture in order to fit himself for government work.

In his class in general botany Professor Bessey is now lecturing on the lilies and their relatives, the irises and orchids. On Wednesday he brought into the class a large vase full of magnificent Easter lilies to serve as illustrations of the lecture.

Dr. Ward left Monday for an extended trip through the west. The exact nature of the trip is not known but the doctor will doubtless mix business with pleasure and spend a profitable summer. He will be back early in the fall to carry out some elaborate plans in connection with the University school of medicine.

Professor Heald, who is to give the work in botany in the summer school this year, is expected to arrive in a few days. He intends to report early so as to become acquainted with the department before Professor Bessey leaves for the vacation. During the summer Professor Heald will be in charge of the department, and will attend to the correspondence.

A few days ago Professor Bessey received a new book on one of the forestry subjects, entitled "The Principal Species of Wood, Their Characteristic Properties," by Professor Snow of the New York University. It is pronounced to be the best book on the subject yet published in this country.
 Professor Bessey is preparing a review of the work for an early issue of Science.

The members of the junior football team, which won the interclass championship, have received the caps and jerseys that were voted to them recently by the class. The caps are very neat, having a football with "04" embroyered on the front, while a large block "04" is on the jerseys. Some rewards of this kind do a good deal to promote healthy interclass athletics.
 There is no reason why the privilege of wearing the class numerals should not mean something here as in eastern schools.

Miss Nina Prey, formerly a student in the University, and for several years a teacher in the public schools of Porto Rico, sends a specimen of the plant called in that country "The Witch" on account of the fact that a leaf detached from the plant and hung up in a room will continue to grow. In Porto Rico the inhabitants regard it with something like superstition, but it turns out to be the common "air plant" of this country. Plants of this species have been grown in our plant houses on the campus for many years.

Dr. Waite of the medical faculty will lecture this evening on the "Bubonic Plague." This disease, known as the "black plague" or "black death," in some countries, made its way across the ocean into the western states and Mexico a few years ago and caused great alarm. By improved medical methods, however, the disease was stamped out before it had made much progress. Dr. Waite will speak from an historical standpoint, and will explain the modern methods of management and control of this terrible disease.
 The lecture will be free to all. Mechanic Arts hall, 301, at 8 o'clock.
