GRAND RECEPTION

Team Prepares to Receive Indians. Benedict at End.

The prospects for the game Saturday are very bright. The blue sky smiled down on us again today bringing out the enthusiasm in the hearts of the rotters and making them feel that the gods of battle are still on our side.

The practice last night was held on the campus in front of the main hall as it was the night before owing to the softness of the football field. The practice was snappy and full of vim. The early part of the evening was spent in practicing punts.

Benedict is still the pride and joy of all lovers of good kicking. The way in which he gets his punts off is exceedingly pleasing. He is sure and speedy and the strength he puts behind them leaves nothing to be desired. Long years after he has gone from the life of the University this feature of his work will still remain as a most pleasant memory and an excellent example for all others trying for honors in that line.

A good many changes will be made in the line-up for the coming game. In all probability Jim Bell will play one half, Eager the other and J. W. Mason fullback. Benedict will be transferred to end, Wilson playing his opposite.

In the line there will be some important changes owing to the fact that several of the men will be out of the game with injuries. Just what these changes will be we are at present unable to say, the entire line-up will probably appear in tomorrow's issue.

Robertson, who is suffering from a severely strained ankle, sustained in the Denver game, will not be in Saturday's line-up, just who takes his place is not yet known. By the way, come out to the game and see for yourself.

Bender was back at quarter last night for a short time. His ankle is rapidly improving and he hopes to go into the game without being troubled with it. Certain it is that he will be there long enough for the Indians to find out that he is the same Bender that bucked against them last year—only a little more so.

After the kicking last night the Varsity lined up against the scrubs for a short while and tried their metal against the strong second team.

It was a good practice and was exceedingly encouraging. The Varsity went into the game with an energy which portends serious things for the dusky men from the south.

This is to be one of the heaviest games on the schedule and will be one of the best. The Indians know the game from A to Etc.—principally the Etc.—and will demonstrate their possession of that knowledge to the best of their ability.

The air of mystery which hangs about them adds a little spice to the prospect. Beyond the merest second-hand details nothing is known of them and their work, so that they will come on the field Saturday practically as strangers.

There is some talk—we say talk because we have not been able to verify the rumor—that the Iowa game will be played in Omaha instead of Iowa City. This would be a good thing for Nebraska. If we may borrow an argument from our Kansas neighbors, it will enable the students here to see the game which otherwise they will probably miss and as this also will be a good game a good many of the students will beyond a doubt take advantage of the opportunity and go to Omaha to see the game. Remember, we said this is only "Talk."

PRECLUDE INTERFERENCE

Admission Slips Will be Mailed to Each Freshman.

The Freshmen will meet Monday at 10 a. m. in the chapel. None but Freshmen will be admitted to the meeting. Certificates of membership in the class of 1907 have been prepared from the registrar's records, signed by the registrar and sent to every person whom the records show is entitled to membership in this class, academic or industrial courses.

These certificates have been mailed by U. S. mail to each Freshman, care of the University postoffice, Station A, city, and can be obtained there any time after 10 o'clock Friday, October 16th. No certificate will be delivered by the postmaster except to the person to whom it is addressed. Any person obtaining someone's else certificate by false representations to the postmaster will of course be guilty of an offense against the United States postal laws.

Freshmen showing these certificates at the door will be admitted to the meeting Monday morning. Notices have been posted about the University telling the Freshmen to call for their certificates at the University postoffice, east basement of University hall.

There is little doubt that every Freshman who desires to take part in the '07 class meeting Monday will go to the postoffice and get his certificate of membership at once. Those who wait till Monday to perform this important duty may find the postoffice crowded with other people, possibly members of other classes, and will be disappointed in getting their certificates in time to attend the Monday meeting.

The Nebraskan has obtained the following list of candidates for temporary chairman, who have announced themselves up to the present time:

Mr. Meyer has announced that he will withdraw in favor of Mr. Sunderlin. John W. Voorhees, formerly of Chicago, member of Beta Theta Pi, has announced that he is a candidate for president of the class.

Junior Laws to Play Football

The past week has brought out some important developments in class athletics, especially among the law students. The Senior laws have organized a football team and have challenged their Junior brothers, the Lincoln Medics and all other strong teams with which there is a possibility of arranging a game. Already they have indulged somewhat in signal practice, and their manager, L. O. Pfeiffer, asserts that no faster team ever wore the pads.

Fred Nellson, who was on the famous Varsity eleven of '00, and who received his first training in the Omaha high school, is the captain, and will play halfback; Kanop, Hazen, Pfeiffer, Waltman and Wolf, all old players, have places already clinched. The remaining places are being contested for with vim and violence. Hewitt is also expected to play and a complete line-up will soon be arranged.

All of these men, while soft at present, understand the game and will get into playing shape soon. The fiercest game on their schedule will probably be that with the Freshman laws, who have among their number several of the University second team. There is a strong feeling of rivalry between the two teams and they are anxious to meet on the gridiron and settle their differences. The Freshman are silent regarding their prospects, but are busily engaged in getting their line-up arranged in good shape.

Five Will Go to Fort Riley

The University will have five representatives at the maneuvers at Fort Riley, Kas., all of whom are members of the Lincoln Light infantry. The student who have signified their intention of going are A. Beckman, B. J. Richards and F. Culver of the cadet battalion, Aca L. Hall of the law school and A. A. Severin of the art school. They will leave with the Lincoln company at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Fort Riley is the largest military post in America, the government owning a stretch of land measuring thirty-one square miles, and of such diversified topography that it affords almost ideal facilities for the training of soldiers for actual warfare. At present the grounds are in poor condition on account of the wet season, and water stands five and six inches deep in many places.

Kappa Kappa Gamma will hold its initiation on Saturday evening at the home of Miss Margaret Whedon, 17th and D streets. There will be six pledges initiated. After the initiation a banquet will be served in the ball room.

The third of the series of teas given to the University young women will be held this afternoon in the rest room from 4:30 to 6 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

Get into Sanderson's Shoes and you will be happy.

SENDS IN REPORT

Prof. Caldwell Reports on Condition of Settlement Fund.

Following is Prof. Caldwell's treasurer's report of the condition of the College Settlement fund:

October 12, 1903.

To the College Settlement Board:

Your treasurer desires to make his report for the year just ended, Sept. 1, 1903, as follows:

At the beginning of the year the Settlement Association was in debt about $300 for labor and material on the building at 20th and N streets. Today the society is out of debt and enters upon the work of the new year under the most favorable auspices. The support of the board during the last year has been given in a very generous manner, and citizens, students, and faculty have responded readily and unhesitatingly to the calls made upon them. Especially have the citizens of Lincoln come to its support in a very hearty manner, and should have its thanks for their generous appreciation of the work it is trying to do. The total net income of the year was, as the table below will show, $720.46. The statement below also indicates the chief sources of income. The amounts apportioned to faculty and city subscribers respectively may vary from actual amounts slightly, as in some cases sums of money were handed me without names of contributors, so I have had to approximate these respective shares. The needs for the coming year may be met on a less income, but on the other hand the amount that can be used wisely and effectively in carrying on the work will be much greater than the sum devoted to that purpose during the year just ended. New enterprises should be undertaken, some of which will require considerable sums of money to make them most effective. If the good people who are interested will continue their cheerful giving as in the past, good results may certainly be realized.

Thanking the board for its helpful work in raising funds, and all who have contributed, I present this summary for your information and encouragement. H. W. CALDWELL,

Treasurer.
