Campus Gleanings

Fred Johnson is a pledge to Phi Delta Pi.

The table lights are still lacking in the law library.

The next meeting of geology I will be in the chapel.

Mrs. H. H. Hemple visited her daughter Loralne, yesterday.

There will be about 2,000 more plants in the greenhouse this year than last.

H. G. Wellensick left for his home in Syracuse Wednesday for a short visit.

Lectures in the Greek sculpture class are now illustrated with stereopticon views.

Miss Eva Sly was called home yesterday by the serious illness of her sister.

The second Band Informal of the year will be given Saturday evening, October 24.

The University Liederkrantz will meet Friday at 1 o'clock. All German students are invited to join.

About 250 chrysanthemum plants have budded. They will probably be in full bloom by Thanksgiving time.

A live electric wire was broken yesterday morning just in front of the south entrance to the University.

Messrs. Melick, Cowan and Richards of the Senior law class, have been appointed librarians in the law library.

A lot of cooking utensils have been received for the use of the class in domestic science at the McKinley school.

The class in wills and administration is waiting impatiently for the arrival of additional copies of Gray's Cases on Property.

Seven Lincoln teachers are taking the work in advanced domestic science at the McKinley school where the classes are very large.

Dean Pound began his lectures on "Office Practice" Monday. He will lecture once a week on this subject during the entire semester.

Negotiations are under way for a $3.00 rate to Lawrence, Kas., for the Kansas-Nebraska football game. The Union Pacific promises to make such a rate, provided 300 students will go.

German department is associate editor of the "Journal of English and German Philosophy," a new publication in the literary world.

The text books for seminar I in English history have not arrived from England yet. Sixteen of the class are without books and have to depend on the one in the library.

The first year class in domestic science is studying temperatures at which flour browns; also the scalding temperature of milk, and when grease is hot enough to brown cakes.

General Thayer visited the Historical Society room yesterday. He took away with him one of his two valuable swords, which have been in the society collection for some time. He will present it to one of his grandchildren.

The office of the University photographer which was located on the third floor of Mechanic Arts building, is now located at 11th and Q streets, in a small brick building opposite the Windsor hotel. Mr. Cornell, who has charge, will return Friday morning
