

More or Less Local

The 2:30 gymnasium class held relay races Friday.

The Sophomores will meet in U. 107 Monday at 10 a. m.

Miss Parkinson is very sick at the St. Elizabeth hospital.

Miss Emma Patterson of Central City, is the guest of friends.

Creta and Myra Warner left Friday to visit at their home in Roca, Neb.

The Glee club now has a new bulletin board in the hall of the main building.

Ed Douglas, '05, now with the Omaha Electric company, visited at the Phi Psi house Thursday.

Mr. R. T. Wenstrand, who has been ill for the past few days, left for his home in Wahoo, Neb.

The girls' Hockey club did not meet for practice this week on account of the bad condition of the field.

Secretary Guernsey the Kansas University Debating association, is visiting with friends in the University.

John Hupp is using crutches as a result of a sprained ankle sustained Wednesday on a defective walk.

Edgar Bedwell, brother of Miss Mary Bedwell is down from Omaha to attend the Nebraska-Knox game today.

The Seniors will meet next Monday at chapel time in U. 106; Sophomores in U. 107 and Freshmen in the chapel.

Miss Conklin's first year French class have turned out in full force to attack the irregular verbs and sentence order.

Mrs. H. M. Caldwell will return tomorrow from Baltimore, Md., where she was called by the death of her brother.

Jesse Whitmore, ex-'05, of Valley, Neb., made a flying visit to Lincoln, Thursday morning, returning in the evening.

Mr. H. D. Landis, '01, of Seward, has been appointed deputy clerk of the supreme court and will shortly move to Lincoln.

Professor Barber's reception for the students of the Latin department will be held in Fraternity hall next Tuesday evening.

Miss Susan Dinsmore has left school to accept a position as instructor in history and English in high school at Sheffield, Ia.

Mr. C. A. Irwin of Sioux City, Ia., arrived in the city last night to visit his daughter Violet, and to attend the football game.

Mr. Guy Mahoney of Missouri Valley, Ia., will be in the city today to attend the football game and visit University friends.

Jack Houston of York, who played left half for Doane on their football team last year was the guest of Allan Murphy Tuesday.

H. D. Travis, father of Miss Helen Travis, '06, was honored by the election to the county judgeship in Cass county at the election Tuesday.

J. C. Elliot, J. F. and Mrs. Losch, J. Hoar, and M. K. Manning, of West Point, are the guests of University friends in attendance at today's game.

Roy Moss had the misfortune to badly bruise his nose Thursday while tumbling in the gymnasium. It is nothing serious so he is able to attend classes.

Professor Stuff's English literature class worked hard and long over its examination Friday. All those who pass will be allowed to continue their work in Elaine.

Fred E. Ayers of Omaha and Frank Perry of Norfolk are pledged to Delta Tau Delta.

Will and Jessie Robertson's father was elected to the district clerkship in Cass county at the recent election by a good comfortable majority over his democratic opponent.

The University Glee club has recently placed a very neat bulletin board in University hall. This will enable all members as well as friends to keep in closer touch with the organization.

The Junior class football team has organized. F. R. Beers is manager and O. A. Mather, captain. Two games have been scheduled for next week with the Academy and the Seniors.

The first inspection of arms of the year will be held Monday evening. The men of the battalion have been hard at work for some time cleaning guns, which have not yet recovered from Wahoo mud.

Wednesday, while working in the forge shop E. C. Hubbard had the misfortune of being struck on the forehead with a heavy piece of hot tool steel. It is not serious, but Mr. Hubbard's appearances will be somewhat defaced for some time as a result.

Messrs. Wolfe of Chester, Ill., and Clemens of St. Louis were looking around Lincoln and particularly the University Thursday. They are contemplating locating in Lincoln soon. Buell Chessington was engineering them around the campus.

Buell Chessington, manager of the Glee club is making arrangements for the appearance of the club in the larger towns out over the state. This is an excellent means of advertising the University out over the state and we hope every measure of success may attend these appearances. Prospects for the year are very bright now.

Departmental.

There are 634 students taking work in the German department.

The first set of short stories by English 29 was handed in last Saturday.

The regular monthly reports of the forestry 3 class were given yesterday.

The department of zoology has received a box of glass beakers from Germany.

Several clergymen have registered for work in the department of sociology this semester.

Professor Barber will lecture on "The Teaching of Latin" to the class in education 7 next Thursday.

Professor Fossler delivered a lecture at Verdon, Neb., last evening on "Vacation Rambles in Europe."

All of the law rooms have been provided with lights now, and new tables have been put in the library.

The class in zoology 5 is beginning their work on worms. It has just finished the study of anemone.

Professor Grumann will lecture on "Gerhard Hauptmann" before the Woman's club at Hastings on November 23d.

Professor Barbour delivered a lecture at York last evening for the benefit of the high school library at that place.

Professor Robbins will start a class this week on bills, notes and checks for Seniors who did not take the work last year.

The class in current topics will discuss the president's special message and Cuban reciprocity at its next meeting, Thursday.

Waterman Fountain Pen

$2.00 to $5.00

1200 O Street

RECTORS

Mr. S. R. Williams, who had a fellowship in the department of physics last year is in Berlin working for his master's degree.

The first year class in physics have just proven that the earth rotates. They are studying Newton's three laws of motion.

The department of education has received a call for a good gentleman instructor in science from one of the high schools of the state.

If weather permits the class in forestry will make a trip to Woodlawn this morning to study forest conditions along the Oak creek valley.

Dr. Ross will deliver an address before the State Teachers' association, which meets here next month, on the "Relation of Education to Society."

Hereafter Dr. Bessey will devote one hour a week to the plant physiology class on the subject of pathology. He gave his first lecture yesterday morning.

Dr. Clements will lecture to the class in botany 1 Friday morning, November 6, concerning some technical laboratory work, such as the use of the microscope.

Professor Luckey has received an invitation from California to do institute work in that state next summer, but will be unable to accept on account of the press of work in his department.

Professor Fogg is advertised to give an address at Omaha Friday evening on "Suggestions to High School Debaters." The annual debate between the Omaha and Chicago high schools is held that evening.

Dr. Ross has received a letter from C. C. North, an old Nebraska man, who is studying for the ministry at Chicago University. Mr. North finds his work very agreeable and expects to do Y. M. C. A. work next year.

Professor Caldwell has received a letter from Professor M. E. Bourne, of Western Reserve University, requesting his assistance in arranging the program to be rendered at the convention of the American Historical association next year.

The department of law has just received a complete set of "Gray's Cases on Property." The Senior law class has been at considerable inconvenience heretofore on account of there being but three volumes of this work in the library.

Professor Caldwell is preparing an article on "The City of Lincoln," which the Scientific American will publish in the Encyclopedia Americana. Professor Caldwell's previous articles in this publication have been on the subjects of "Nullification," and the "Mexican War." Drs. Sherman and Ross are also contributing articles.

$25.00

To the Pacific Coast

Tickets on Sale Daily to November 30, 1903. Call and get full information.

G. W. BONNELL
G. P. & T. A. LINCOLN

A. G. SPALDING & BROS.'

OFFICIAL

FOOT BALL SUPPLIES

ARE MADE IN ACCORDANCE WITH OFFICIAL RULES

Spalding's handsomely illustrated catalogue of Fall and Winter sports containing all the new things in football will be sent free to any address.

Spalding's official football guide, containing the new rules. Per copy 10 cents.

How to Play Foot Ball. By Walter Camp. New edition. Per copy 10 cents.

A. G. Spalding & Bros.

New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Boston, Baltimore, Buffalo, Kansas City, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Denver, Montreal, Can. London, England

Clary Cigars and Tobacco

Telephone A 1035 111 N. 11th Street

THE P. D. SMITH CO.

COAL

Carry all the best grades of domestic coals, among which will find the Rex Lump at $7.25. Rock Spring, Wyoming Lump at $8.00, and the best Maitland you ever saw at $7.50. All kinds of steam coal, the best money can buy.

Office 1140 O. Phone 329. Yard 6 and N. Phone 376