For the Banquet Nov. 30th

The forthcoming banquet at the Lindell hotel is exciting a great deal of comment and it bids fair to be one of the most popular social events of the season. The Lindell hotel management is making preparations to use extra efforts in giving the football men and their admirers the time of their lives, and this comes as a welcome assurance, as the Lindell people have always, whenever entrusted with functions of this character, given the best measure of satisfaction to all concerned. The elegance and high quality of their service is well known and those in charge of affairs can look forward to an event in which every detail will be attended to with the greatest care and nothing omitted to make the affair one of surpassing enjoyment.

Banquet to Football Team.

Monday evening at 9 p. m., the football team will be tendered a banquet at the Lindell hotel. Here is a chance for every man to show his appreciation of the magnificent work the team has done this season. While the fraternities initiated the movement the committee in charge wish it distinctly understood that the banquet is not to be a fraternity affair. Every man should be there and enjoy the evening with the team. Dr. Pound will act as toastmaster. Tickets can be had from the committee composed of Townsend, chairman; Lunneen, Updike and Moore.

Dr. Joseph Jastrow, professor of psychology of the University of Wisconsin, lectured last night to a crowded house in Memorial Hall on "The Subconscious." He treated his subject in an able manner and the audience was intensely appreciative. Dr. Jastrow is a specialist in this field and not to have heard him was to miss a rare treat.

Orders for the souvenir football number should be left in Nebraskan editorial or business office.
