Campus Gleanings

Anita Jones, '22, is principal of the Dunbar high school.

Leona Pollard, '02, is principal of the Nehalem high school.

The Pedagogical club will meet next Wednesday night in V. 310.

There are two very large green-houses being erected at the state farm.

D. J. Hull, of Central City, is the guest of University friends today.

L. M. Gooding has gone to the Black Hills in the interest of the entomology department.

Miss Besie O'Connor, '07, of Missouri Valley, Ia., is pledged to Delta Delta Delta.

The horticultural building at the state farm is progressing wonderfully. It is nearly finished.

The Y. W. C. A. is the proud possessor of a handsome new picture, the gift of Miss Quivits.

H. C. Swallow of Sterling, Neb., a former University student, is visiting in Lincoln at present.

Dean Pound has appointed the judges for the practice courts, which will commence in a week or so.

A new law class has been organized of men who will graduate next year. There are about ten members in the class.

Preparations are being made by the Y. M. C. A. for getting out the annual student's directory. They will be ready for distribution in a few weeks.

The following old University men are now serving in the regular army: W. H. Oery, first lieutenant; Thomas Ryan, S. A. White, C. H. Pullis, second lieutenants.

The books on plant physiology and plant pathology are to be arranged and catalogued by Professor Head. They are now in room 197, where additional shelving will soon be provided.

Ada Caldwell, an old University student, and a graduate of the art institute of Chicago has entered Columbia University. Miss Caldwell is a sister of Professor H. M. Caldwell of the department of American history.

Instructor Shantz's class in agricultural botany now numbers twenty, which is as many as can be accommodated by the facilities and apparatus now at the disposal of the department of botany. Larger rooms and more apparatus must be provided before the opening of the next school year.

The friends of Miss Florence E. Hartzell, '02, will be pained to learn of her death last Saturday, November 28th, at San Diego, California. The Nebraska has not been able to obtain the details of her demise, but is informed her funeral will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow at Trinity M. E. church, corner 16th and A streets.

The top-story of the College Settlement house will soon be plastered inside, and a new window added. This will provide accommodation for two more men, who will be given a room, furnished and heated, in return for work done there. All debts against the Settlement have been paid and a balance of over $200 remains in the treasury at the present time.
