HAVE UNITY AMONG SLAVS.

Stephen Panaretoff Delivered Lecture in Chapel Last Night.

Mr. Stephen Panaretoff, of Robert College Constantinople, lectured last night before a well filled house in Memorial hall on "Pan-Slavic Unity," or the tendency toward unity among the Slavic people. The national awak-ening of the Slavs and their political importance, said he, is one of the most important events of the last century. In Bulgaria the first public school was opened in 1837, and the Scriptures were first translated into the Bulgarian lan-guage in 1860.

With this awakening of the national self-consciousness, poets and writers came forward from various parts laud-ing the idea, and in the universities a chair of Slavic philosophy has been established, and a distinct science has grown out of it in recent times. But there were, and still exist, a great many difficulties. The principal of these are their clannishness, differ-ence in dialects, literary language and religious creeds. All these, with the exception of the clans, perhaps, are becoming greater all the time, and while there has been an awakening of a spirit of national unity the trend is to drift farther and farther apart. Mr. Panaretoff is professor of Bulgarian history and literature in Robert Col-lege. He is himself a Slav and treated his subject in a very broad and liberal style. He has a distinct foreign ac-cent, but speaks very eloquently and holds his audience throughout, making himself well and clearly understood at all times. His treatment of this im-portant subject was highly instructive as well as interesting. He is on a lecture tour through the United States, having lectured at Yale, Harvard, Wis-consin and Illinois before coming here.

Would Like $85 for Damages.

Messrs. Forburger & Speidell, prop-riators of a marble shop on 11th street have filed a bill with the Athletic Board of $85.00 for crates contributed to the football celebration after the Kansas game. Messrs. Forburger & Speidell are exhibiting a deplorable lack of college spirit.

Battalion Inspection.

The regular monthly inspection was held on the campus last evening. The inspection was not so severe as the last one held, but the names of several men were reported, nevertheless. Captain Chase announces that an inspection will be held regularly each month here-after, following the custom set last year.

Tomorrow's Football Game.

The class teams are practicing again for the final game tomorrow. Captain Myers of the Senior team has a bad knee as the result of a fall on the ice last Saturday. Raaschm, a man who played on a college team in Wisconsin, will probably be at guard for the Sen-iors part of the time.

The instructors in the department of American history are ordering a series of lantern slides to be used in illus-trative lectures before the various classes of the department. This is somewhat of an innovation at Nebraska but will doubtless prove very success-ful, as the need of something of the kind has been felt for some time.

The Historical Society has just re-ceived a collection of Indian arrow-heads from Mr. A. G. Parker of Yut-an, Neb. The collection numbers 27 in all, each being an excellent spec-imen. They were all found in the Platte river bottoms.

Miss Florence Hartzel, sister of Miss Mabel Hartzel of the Academy, was buried Sunday afternoon. She was a graduate of the University, class '01, and since September has been sojourning in San Diego, Cal., for her health.

TEACHERS WANTED.
