The Senior hat has made its appearance, and is commanding much favorable comment. The hat is of the Harvard style, dark blue in color, with "U. N." and the class numerals in Scarlet and Cream. The price is $1.50. They may be had at the Co-Op.

Mr. H. H. Bove, student in organic chemistry, was seriously hurt yesterday about 5 o'clock. He was working the acetyl chloride experiment and his apparatus broke and his left eye and face show the effects of burns and cuts.

E. F. Meyers broke all records so far reported in individual soliciting for the Temple Fund. While at his home town, Broken Bow, during the holidays, he solicited and returned Monday, turning $76 over toward the Fund. Now, let's hear from others. Who can approach or break this record?

Mr. A. E. Sheldon of the historical society, lectured to the class in advanced geology last Friday on the early Indian tribes in Nebraska. His talk was so highly interesting that the class was unanimous in inviting Mr. Sheldon to continue the lecture, which he will do at a future meeting of the class.

Mr. E. G. Woodruff is about to finish a combined relief and geologic map of Cass county, which is to be 5 feet long by 3 wide, showing elevations and depressions, stream beds, quarries, etc., completely indicated. When cast in plaster and painted it is to go to the world's fair as a part of the Nebraska educational exhibit.

Professor Swezey has just completed the architectural plans for his new home on 26th and R streets. The house is partly on the colonial plan, and will be two stories with a good basement and attic. The plans which are Professor Swezey's own drawing, will now be submitted to contractors for bids. He hopes to have the new home completed before the end of next semester. The social announced to be given to the Y. W. C. A. and the advisory board at the home of Mrs. Hall has been postponed for about two weeks.
