Convocation

Professor Caldwell at convocation today.
Thursday—Ex-Chancellor Benton.
Friday—Music.

M. E. Townsend's mother, of Tecumseh, Neb., is visiting him today.

R. D. Montgomery of Oak, has registered for special work in the University.

A large new case for retaining minerals has been placed in the chemistry hall.

C. E. Bell has been absent from classes for the last two days on account of sickness.

Mr. Wm. Fox, '03, has accepted a position at Buffalo, Wyo., as science teacher in the high school.

Miss Margaret McCutcheon left for Tobias yesterday to accept a position as teacher in the high school.

Professor Brace lectured to the class in education 7 yesterday afternoon on the teaching of physics in the high school.

Professor Luckey, on January 29, will lecture before a teachers' association at York on "The Child and His Teachers."

W. R. Buchanan, accompanied by his sister, went to Auburn Friday, being called home by the sudden death of their mother.

Dr. M. H. Evans of Emerson, Neb., has just sent to the University a mastodon tusk in which the ivory remains almost intact.

The basket ball game to have been played between the Seniors and the High School team this evening has been declared off.

The class in quantitative chemistry is working with gravimetric experiments and will soon be ready to start on the volumetric.

R. A. Miller, '04, has prepared a lengthy report on "Silviculture," which he will present before a class in the forestry department.

The department of geology has just received 200 additional lantern slides on various subjects which are to be used in subsequent lectures.

J. E. Crawford, former student assistant in the entomology department, will leave in a short time for Washington, D. C., to work in the field investigating cotton insects.

Some changes are being made in the courses in botany for the coming year. Additional work will be offered in plant physiology, and some changes will be made in the work in systematic botany.

About seventy-five girls attended the noon prayer meeting in Y. W. C. A. room Tuesday from 12:20 to 12:30, and all felt more than repaid for their efforts by hearing Miss Howell speak for a few moments on the subject "The Manners."

Through a mistake on the part of our Society Editor, and an oversight by the editor in chief, we credited A. G. Schreiber with giving a smoker last Tuesday evening, which we found later was not the case. Mr. Schreiber professes ignorance of any such event.

Professor Bruner will repeat his lectures in ornithology 1 next semester. They will be given on Saturday afternoons and as much field work will be done as the weather may permit. This work is especially adapted to the teacher's course and with the spring weather will offer a fine field of work.

The Whitebreast Co., at 1106 O St., is the place to buy coal.

If you want a real bargain, Sander-son's Sale is the place to get it.

Woman's Home Companion

THE IDEAL HOME MAGAZINE

Is in its twenty-eighth year; is printed on fine paper and profusely illustrated. It gives 40 to 54 pages a month, each page 11 by 16 inches, and a new and beautiful cover in colors every issue. Its editors and contributors are the most popular American writers; in short, it is the ideal family magazine, magnificently illustrated. Its departments are edited by experts and are full of interest. As a home magazine it has no superiors, and few, if any, equals.

600 Pages—1,200 Pictures

EACH PAGE IS EQUAL TO FOUR ORDINARY MAGAZINE PAGES...

Hundreds of thousands consider it a family necessity. It is clean, pure and inspiring. Its contents, while varied, are entertaining and of the highest order. It contains neither sensationalism nor provincialism.

It already has 340,000 subscribers, and this number is constantly increasing.

A Live Agent Wanted in Every Community. Most Liberal Terms.

Subscription Price $1.00 a Year. Ten Cents a Copy.

Send Ten Cents for a sample copy and we will send you an elegant engraving, 20 by 25 inches in size, of Landseer's famous painting "Defiance, or Stag at Bay." Mention this offer when you write.
