Convocation.

The following is the convocation program for the week:

Tuesday—Reading, Fay Ewing.
Wednesday—Speakers from various colleges.

Thursday—Speakers from various colleges.

Friday—Special music.

The first year class in elocution will give a recital tomorrow morning.

The examination schedules will appear on the bulletin boards this afternoon.

Miss Chevrant, one of the stenographers in the office of the registrar, has again resumed her duties after an illness of several days.

Mr. S. R. Williams, fellow in physics last year, is studying in Berlin. He reports that he is progressing nicely and thoroughly enjoying his work.

Fred Fair, who attended the University last year, is working for his father in a flour mill at Hardy, Neb. He says he will be here for work again next year.

Mr. Wycer left today for New York City, where he will attend a meeting of the executive committee of the National Library association, of which he is a member.

In the absence of Captain Brown of Company C, together with the first and second lieutenants, Sergeant W. C. Ramsey took charge of the company last Thursday evening.

Captain Brown and first Lieutenant McNamara of Company C, and Second Lieutenant Mather, of company D, inspected the high school battalion at Crete Friday evening and appointed cadet officers.

Dr. Wharton addressed the Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon. He spoke on "The Young Woman of the Coming Generation and the Place She Will Occupy." His talk was highly appreciated, as was the vocal solo by Mr. Harry Wharton.

While in the act of carrying a sack of corn from the barn at the state farm Sunday night a burglar was caught by Axel Stratton, a former University student, now employed at the farm, and before he could stop his man, who made considerable resistance, Stratton found it necessary to draw his revolver, resulting in driving a bullet through his abdomen.

For some time it was known that corn was getting away in a way unaccountable for and Stratton was ordered to capture the robber. When he saw his man last night he ordered him to halt and failing to comply, Stratton shot. He has since been identified as William Lewis, a farmer at 13th and South street. His injury may prove fatal.

The Case County club, an organization of University people, who have at heart the social unity of the students from that section of the country, met this morning in U. 111 for the purpose of discussing the propriety of a social event in the near future.

The student members from Cass county had a meeting last October, which resulted in the formation of this club, with Miss Davis as president, since which time they have enjoyed a very pleasant social gathering at her residence.

The exact facts in regard to the business accomplished this morning are not known. However, we hope they succeeded in bringing about the results at which they aimed, that they may perpetuate the social spirit in their midst.

SENIORS—Wednesday, January 20, last day for photos. Attend to this at once.
