Big Mass Meeting.

There will be an unusual treat to college men at the men's mass meeting next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Oliver. The subject of the address by Mr. Fred B. Smith, a speaker of wide repute, will be "The Supper of Death." Mr. Smith has been on the platform for a number of years and is recognized as a man without a peer in the special religious work in which he is engaged. He is well known, especially among college men as an orator of the first rank and a man of apparently unlimited power. Mr. Fred L. Willis, general secretary of the Omaha Y. M. C. A. for several years, and recently called to Worcester, Mass., will be present with his big voice to conduct the music. He has had large experience as a singer, and will no doubt render some fine vocal selections. Owing to the fact that a large number of men from other cities will be present as delegates to the state convention, and also because of Mr. Smith's great popularity, admission to the address will be by ticket only, up to 4 o'clock. Tickets may be had at the First Presbyterian church, Rudge & Guenzel, Tidball & Marsh, B. L. Paine, and the Y. M. C. A. office. Those desiring seats must secure tickets in advance.

Y. M. C. A. Convention.

The attention of University men is called to the big state Y. M. C. A. convention now being held in this city. Several men of national prominence will be in attendance, and a large number of excellent addresses will be heard. The convention began last evening with a large representation present.
