stantial. A collection of persons to whom is entrusted a business is either a board or a committee just as you may please to call them one and the same thing.

All suggestions concerning the preparation of the Sombro, its material or subject matter, its cover and its contents, or the business management of the enterprise, will be welcomed by us and will receive courteous consideration. Because in the past a board has been reckless in its trust it no more follows that another board will be, than that because some years ago a state treasurer became a defaulter the present treasurer will be direct in his duty. Do not be knockers until your suggestions have been presented and left unheeded, elsewise you expose the unworthy animus of your knocking.

We hereby pledge ourselves not to exploit the class for our personal gain, but while expecting a reasonable compensation for our services, to produce a book that will be a credit to the University, our class and ourselves. Self respect and a desire to merit the approbation of our fellows, now and hereafter, will not permit us to do otherwise.

Respectfully,
MASON WHEELER,
CHARLES M. MATHEWSON
Editors-in-Chief.

A MINSTREL SHOW.

Dramatic Club Intends to Give a Play in Auditorium.

Arrangements have just been perfected by the Dramatic Club to give a Ladies' Minstrel show in April. It is expected to make this the crowning feature of the club's work, and to give an exhibition that is not only excellent from a musical standpoint, but it is to be highly refined and carried out in the most artistic style. To do this it will not be confined to members of the club, but the best musical talent of the city will be employed and such outside help called in as may be necessary to make a really first class minstrel possible. Those who were connected with the University in the days of Colonel Stotzenburg will remember the minstrel undertaken by the University then. It crowded the theatre to its utmost capacity, and in every respect proved to be a most glorious success. The management will spare no effort to make this undertaking surpass all previous ones.

The Auditorium will be secured, as it is perhaps best adapted for this purpose, and the seating capacity too is such as to permit of a large attendance.

Active work will commence at once, and the young ladies are requested by the management to meet for the first rehearsal Wednesday at 7 p. m., in U. 106.

The Dramatic club is an exceedingly strong organization. It has a large membership and all are active workers. The various divisions have had regular meetings since the opening of school in September, and a high degree of efficiency has been developed, and a number of plays worked up which will be given before the end of the season. "Mr. Bob" comes in February. "Mr. Tompkin's Hired Man" in March.

The Ladies Minstrel in April, and "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" in May closes up the season.

Our price is 15 cents, and we give 15 cent shaves.

Read this space in our next issue and you will find correct answer, also solution and proof, in the meantime chew "White Sue" gum for the dark brown taste and "Black Joe" for the complexion and a "pleasant smile" for the blues, and don't forget to save the wrappers.
