Word has reached University people of the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wiggenhorn. Mrs. Wiggenhorn was formerly Miss Jessie Lansing, and both she and her husband were prominent University people at one time.

The Academy closed for Charter Day. So many students are taking part work at the University that nothing else can be done on University holidays, even if the Academy people did not enjoy these privileges. The farmers at the experimental stations worked all day, because, as Prof. Davison put it, they can not break over the habit.

University people will be sorry to hear of the death of John Uhl's father, which occurred last week. The funeral was held Saturday. Mrs. James Burk of Deadwood, S. D., and Mrs. G. W. Cook, of Benedict, daughters of the deceased, and Mrs. Hardy, of Beatrice, his sister, who have all been staying at the home of Mr. Uhl, departed for their homes yesterday.
