Professor Fossler is confined to his house with a case of bronchitis.

Dr. Jones is confined with illness and has been unable to meet his classes this week.

The university Liederknauz will meet hereafter on Monday at 10 a. m. in the chapel.

Miss Alleyne Archibald gave her graduate recital in Memorial hall yesterday evening.

Mr. Barret, secretary of the State Historical society, returned from his trip to Chicago yesterday.

Miss Pound, Miss Mulliken, and Miss Shearer entertain the so-called Comraderie club tonight at the home of Miss Pound, 1632 L street. A musical program will be given by talent within the club, and a pleasant evening is expected.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Now that the mass meetings at the Oliver have been discontinued, the university association, which has been cooperating with the city Y. M. C. A. in these meetings, will resume its Sunday afternoon services. Next Sunday's service will be a review of the mass meetings, by local association men. Some time will also be devoted to the singing of familiar hymns. It is hoped that a large number of students will be present. The meeting will begin promptly at 3 p. m.

Mr. Geo. F. Ross, formerly secretary of the university association, writes from Philadelphia, Pa., that he is studying medicine at the University of Pennsylvania and is very busy in his work, but getting along nicely. He sends regards to old friends.

Frank Peterson gave a very practical and interesting talk to college men at the men's prayer meeting Wednesday evening in the association rooms. His subject was "My Place as a Christian Citizen."

The new lockers which have recently been placed in the rooms were in great demand and but a few remain unrented.

Union Boys Debate.

The Nebraskan is under obligations to C. W. Melick for a mistake occurring in yesterday's issue. Instead of the person mentioned the credit is chiefly due to him for the wonderful growth and increased activity the Union club has recently experienced.

The question to be debated at next meeting of the Union club will be the recent appreciations for the navy.

The affirmative will be upheld by McDonald and Hickel, and the negative by Levy and Kimmel.

A red hot debate is assured. This will be followed by the election of officers. All are cordially welcome.
