Phi Beta Phi entertained at the chapter house Saturday evening.

Phi Kappa Psi will give a formal dancing party Friday evening at the Lincoln hotel.

About forty men of the Junior class met for a very enjoyable evening Saturday at the Phi Delta house. Games of various sorts were played and refreshments of an appropriate nature were served.

By way of music the Phi Delta orchestra entertained the men very pleasantly with several well rendered numbers.

As souvenirs of the evening, pipes with '05 numerals, were given to the men present.

PALLADIAN GIRLS' PROGRAM

Last Friday evening the annual program of the Palladian girls was given in Palladian hall.

The first part of the program was an entertainment given by "The Sweet Family." The cast of characters was as follows:

Ma Sweet—(A Lone Relic,) Minnie Petrashek.

Arminy Ann Sweet—(With Many Winning Ways,) Susan Barnhart.

Betsy Belindy Sweet—(The Delicate One,) Elizabeth Hawxby.

Caroline Cordelia Sweet, Dorothy Delilah Sweet—(Both Twins,) Nellie Miller and Clara Boose.

Elizabeth Eliza Sweet—(By Far the Most Attractive,) Imogene Brewster.

Frances Fedory Sweet—(Partial to Flowers,) Anna Moore.

Gloriand Gadabout Sweet—(Who Giggles,) Lillian Bennett.

The play was highly appreciated by the audience. After the play the Palladian girls to the number of sixteen, prettily garlanded in white, and carrying garlands of smilax, marched in to music and presented a very pretty drill, composed by one of their number, Miss Florence Huntington. The drill was so pleasing to the audience that the girls were prevailed upon to repeat it.

After the program the usual social recess was enjoyed and then the boys gave their part of the evening's entertainment. They surprised the girls with a substantial feed. After the feed, a good old-fashioned Virginia reel was enjoyed and then the night-watch turned out the lights. Then sixty happy Palladians descended the stairs to the tune of "John Jones," one more good time was over, only to be renewed the next time they meet together.

The Palladian society is in receipt of a fine photograph of the campus and buildings of the Syrian Protestant college at Beirut, Syria. This picture is the gift of a fellow member, Mr. Samuel Anderson, '03, now of the Syrian Protestant college. The picture has been neatly framed and hung on the wall of their hall.

LAWS 28; DOUGLAS 8.

There was an interesting game of basket ball between the Laws and Douglas Saturday evening. Although judging from the score the Douglas team was greatly outclassed, the teams were much more evenly matched than the score indicates. In the first half the laws were able to throw four baskets, and two fouls, while Douglas threw one basket and one foul.

The fact that the visiting team was unused to so large a floor probably accounts for the large score in the second half, for by the time the half was over the Douglas men were beginning to show the effect of the work. The score card registered ten fouls on the Laws and only four on the visitors. Schoental, Smith and Elliott did good work for Douglas.

This was the line-up:
Douglas—Roberts, center; Smith and Castleman, forwards; Schoental and Elliott, guards.

Laws—Waltman, center; Corlett and Matthews, forwards; Flansburg, Milek and Leitner, guards.
