Other Colleges

A prize for Latin verse has been offered at Syracuse university.

The valedictorianship and salutatorianship have been abolished at Yale.

Syracuse university has just announced its baseball schedule, which consists of twenty-seven games

Michigan is considering the advisability of sending a two-mile relay team to the Pennsylvania relay races in April.

The sophomore class at South Dakota is planning to present two comedies, one being a German and the other a modern American production.

The Cornell co-eds have decreed that no freshman girl shall receive gentlemen callers, or be attended by gentlemen escorts.

The men of the junior and freshman classes have voted to challenge the sophomores to a track meet to occur the second week in April.

The Colorado Tiger discusses the feasibility of having graded diplomas at Colorado, and concludes that such an innovation has not as yet become a crying necessity.

A freshman at Michigan was fined $150 for striking an officer during the "Fresh-Soph" rush, and his classmates showed their spirit by helping him out.

Prospects for a winning track team are good at Morningside college. Regular training has begun and cross-country runs will soon be eliminated. A gold medal will be given to the star athlete and individual medals will also be awarded.

Minnesota has sent a gymnastic team to New York to compete with eleven other teams representing some of the greatest colleges in the country.

The Drake Delphic will publish a leap year edition in May, to be edited by the girls. This is an innovation that has become very popular among college papers and may be tried here.

That athletic men are in demand to fill instructorships in different parts of the country is shown by the following from the Chicago Maroon: "Several vacancies in which athletic men are called for have been received at the office of the board of recommendations; one in mathematics at $900; another in general science at $1,200, and a third in a military academy at a good salary."

As this term draws to a close, we would like to drop a word about cramming. Don't do it. It does no good, unless possibly in the per cent column. One rarely raises his real grade of work by stuffing. The old system of education was based on the principle of "ram it in, cram it in, jam it in, any way to get it in." But it doesn't pay in the long run. What we get out of school is a result of daily training, not examinations and plugging.—Drake Delphic.

Women's Scholarship Offer.

The association for maintaining the American women's table at Zoological Station at Naples, and for promoting scientific research by women, announces the offer of a second prize of $1,000. It is for the best thesis, written by a woman, on a scientific subject embodying new observations and new conclusions based on an independent laboratory research in biological, chemical or physical science.

The theses offered in competition are to be presented to the executive committee of the association and must be in the hands of the chairman of the committee on the prize, Mrs. Ellen M. Richards, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston, Mass., before December 31, 1904.

The prize will be awarded at the annual meeting in April, 1905. Each thesis must be accompanied by a sealed envelope, enclosing the author's name and address, and superscribed with a title corresponding to one borne by the manuscript.
