After several days' illness, B. A. Newton is again in school.

Morton Ware will spend the whole Easter vacation in Nebraska City.

R. S. Harris was unable to attend classes Monday and Tuesday on account of illness.

Mr. Arch Hamer for persistent neglect of work, has been requested to withdraw.

Miss Emma Melick gave a recital at Bennett last Friday night, for the benefit of the public library.

Miss Mabel Snyder of O'Neill, Neb., is visiting his sister Bessie, at the University Conservatory of Music.

The students of the conservatory of music will give a recital in the chapel tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Lola Southwick, '07, entertained a number of her friends at her home 1645 B street, last evening.

Seniors attend chapel in a body Thursday to hear P. B. K. announcements. Meet first floor Memorial hall at 9:50.

Vacation days in other schools bring visitors to the Academy, all of whom are welcome.

The Cadet band has decided to tour the state for three weeks' time from June 9th to July 1. The band will be conducted by Prof. Hagenow, who is now making the necessary arrangements. Immediately after the tour they will go to the St. Louis exposition for a two weeks' stay.

The final examinations in the Lincoln Medical College classes in chemistry are set for April 15th. The young men have in the main been gentlemanly and studious, much to Miss Hartzell's relief, who dreaded the task of instructing men in many cases older than herself. They have, however, treated her with deference.

Mr. John D. Brady concluded his lecture on "Egypt and the Holy Land," during chapel hour yesterday morning, which was as well appreciated as the preceding portions. Many excellent views of the historic land of the ancient Jew were fully explained by the speaker and the audience has ample reason to feel highly benefited by the series of his chapel talks.
