Academy Notes.

The students have returned to work in a building clean from top to bottom. Windows, floors and woodwork have been washed, curtains laundered, chairs cemented—all the little odds and ends repaired. One would think from this recital that Academy students were chiefly engaged in battering down walls. The very opposite is the case. No damage has ever been done intentionally and when accidents have occurred prompt confession has been made. No greater relief has ever come to the principal than the knowledge that ladies and gentlemen only are attached to this school.

Much complaint has been made by Academy students that there are not enough courses offered in the University summer session in which entrance credits can be made. To the regret of the director this is true and is due to the fact that the program is largely the result of compromises. It may be necessary to carry a few elementary courses in the Academy. Students should let the principal know at once what courses are desired; it may be possible to meet the needs partially.

The printer last week cut up the Academy notes so that it is necessary to again repeat that Arch Hamer for persistent neglect of work has been requested to withdraw. The Academy is not rich, but is rich enough to refuse tuition from those who are not willing to work. This makes the second foolish fellow who has thought that if he paid his bills, class cutting would be overlooked. Both were mistaken.

Nothing so clearly indicates the growth of the Academy as the increase of applications for teaching positions. During the past month more than ten strong teachers have applied. It is sincerely hoped that no vacancies will occur in the present force, to whom the principal owes so much gratitude for thorough work, generous service, and an unusual sense of responsibility for the success of the Academy.

The picnic party to the State Farm failed to materialize, but the farm will be written up just the same by the Misses Lute in the next issue of the News, which will go to press about the 15th of this month.

Final examinations in the Lincoln Medical College classes are set for April 15th.

Delians Give Successful Party.

The Delians gave a very pleasant and successful party last Wednesday in the hall. Everybody had a good time from start to finish.

A feature of the evening entertainment was the imitations by Mr. Vasey of the farmyard animals, especially the long eared variety.

Mr. De Con showed wonderful power of interpreting magic music when in the presence of a young lady. The music was not altogether necessary, however.

Punch was served during the evening. Miss Freeman and Miss Wirth presiding.

Next Friday evening Miss Ruth E. Blanchard of Beatrice will entertain the society. She is a whistler of much ability and with a very high reputation. An excellent program is prepared, and every Delian should make it a point to keep that date open. The program will be free and all are welcome.

Kappa Sigs Defeat Phi Gams.

As a preliminary bout before the big event yesterday the Phi Gams and the Kappa Sigs contested for honors. The Kappa Sigs won out in an exciting finish in which errors and a number of timely hits played the main part. Miller and Mason made the long hits of the game, the former getting a home run and the latter a three bagger. Both teams started off strong at the bat, but became more lax in their efforts as the game progressed. Cy Mason and Roth were the points for the Kappa Sigs and Miller and Shallenberger for the Phi Gams.

Score by innings:
Kappa Sigs 2 0 0 0 3-5
Phi Gams 3 0 1 0 0-4
