The City Y. M. C. A. and Academy teams will meet in debate next Saturday evening.

Miss Patricia Naughton has returned from Omaha, where she has been ill with the grip.

The Academy baseball team will play the Cotner baseball team at Cotner next Saturday afternoon.

The Palladian Debating society reports a good debate for last Saturday evening, and an excellent attendance. President Baird is now supervising the interests of the debaters.

The three debaters who will meet Doane in the annual contest between the Palladian Debating club and the Doane club, are Messrs. Craig, Smith and Mitchell all tried men and good logical thinkers, who will show how an argument should be presented.

"Ye Editor," while "piping off" the curves of one of the pitchers from an advantageous position behind the catcher in the game yesterday, received the full effect of a foul tip, which he was not "swift" enough to get out of the way of. He is able to get around, but is still repenting for his act of curiosity.

Dress Parade Tonight.

It was announced at drill last evening that if the state of the weather permits the battalion will appear in white duck trousers for the first dress parade of the year this evening. It is feared that last night's rain will make it necessary to postpone this today but the announcement of one of the features which gained so much popularity last year will be greeted with considerable interest by University people.

The unusual efficiency in battalion movement will doubtless make the weekly dress parades even more brilliant than they were last year. The improvement in the band is also expected to aid materially in the success of the review.

Union-Maxwell Debate.

The Unions and Maxwells will meet in debate next Saturday evening. The question to be discussed is "Resolved, That the fifteenth amendment should be repealed." The Unions have the affirmative and will be represented by Pifer, McReynolds and Paul. The Maxwell team has not been posted.
