April 29th (Friday) Kansas Debate Memorial Hall.

The Academy girls have purchased a new basket ball from the proceeds of their last game.

The Seniors will meet in U. M. Monday, when several committees are expected to report.

Miss Lyla Le Goore entertained the members of the Social Hour club at her home, 1629 C street, yesterday afternoon.

The Academy people will hold a rally this morning in the interests of the debate with the Y. M. C. A. next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Notice: The Ladies' Minstrel will sing tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The entire chorus is urged to be present.

Dress parade was not held as originally intended last evening on account of the wet weather. It will be conducted regularly each Thursday hereafter, however.

C. W. Taylor, a graduate of the University, who has been superintendent of the Geneva schools, is reported as having an excellent prospect of securing the superintendency of the Lead, So. Dak., schools.

The usual program at Union hall will not be given tonight, but the society will enjoy the hospitality of the Delians in the entertainment at their hall by Mrs. Blanchard. The business meeting will be held in Union hall following the program.

Pictures have been received, framed and distributed to the city school with the compliments of the Nebraska Art association. Some $50 was expended for this purpose. All the pictures are either photographs or photogravures of well known masterpieces.

Miss Withers, secretary of the University Y. W. C. A., will take Miss Carrie Barbour's place as chaperone at the Conservatory of Music, during the latter's absence in St. Louis, where she is assisting Dr. Barbour in installing the Nebraska Educational exhibit.

The proposition of sending a company to the St. Louis fair will be again presented to the battalion in the near future. The railroads have been offering rates equivalent to about a cent a mile for these college cadet excursions, and other inducements will serve to make the plan even more advantageous than it was formerly considered. Considerable interest is again being manifested in the project, and the department has hopes of being able to raise the desired company.

Recital Tomorrow Night.

The fifth students' recital of the School of Music, which was postponed from its original date, March 31, will be held in Memorial Hall tomorrow evening. The following will be the program:
