The Union and Academy baseball team played ball last night.

A week from next Sunday Hon. W. J. Bryan will address the men's meeting.

The Sophomore baseball team will line up against Havelock next Saturday.

The Palladian and Academy baseball teams are scheduled to play a game on the campus this evening.

Tonight at 7 p. m. in the Y. M. C. A. rooms Miss Withers, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., will address the prayer meeting. Her subject is: "The Man who Changed his Name." Every man in the University is invited.

The English II division, under Miss Woodman, has been provided with work for the balance of the semester by an assignment of a theme 2,000 words in length, the production to be divided into four sections, and the first is due today, and must be left with Professor Shedd.

Next Sunday, at 3 p. m., Dr. Greene will give the lecture which he was prevented from giving two weeks ago last Sunday. His subject will be: "A Thing Every Man Ought to Know." Dr. Greene is thoroughly acquainted with his subject and his address ought to draw a large audience.

NOTICE.

There will be a special meeting of the Engineering society Wednesday at chapel time in M. 211 to decide upon the date and make arrangements for the Omaha excursion. All members interested are requested to be present.
